Common Market Warns U.S.

Pledges Aid To Parochial Institutions

Nixon Promises To Try To Keep Schools Open

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon, barnstorming the country on behalf of his block-buster economic program, has sidetracked himself long enough to make a strong defense of Roman Catholic parochial schools.

Speaking Tuesday night at the 89th convention dinner of the Knights of Columbus, an organization of Catholic laymen, Nixon drew the warmest applause after pledging efforts to combat the closing of parochial schools, which he said are shutting down at the rate of one a day.

Appearing after New York's Terence Cardinal Cooke had called for greater federal aid for church-sponsored education, Nixon said, "I want to associate myself with the remarks of His Eminence" and prompted prolonged cheers by declaring that the causes of parochial school closings must be combated.

"We must resolve to stop that trend and turn it around," he said, but did not indicate any specific measures he might have in mind.

Making his first public appearance since announcing Sunday a temporary wage-price freeze and other steps aimed at countering economic ills at home and abroad, Nixon appealed for individual sacrifices to help make his program work.

"It's easy to sit back and criticize; it's hard to make the sacrifices, do the work, make the extra effort that makes the difference between a nation on the way down and a nation on the way up," he said.

Nixon drew more applause as he stated, "When so many voices are running down America, the time has come to speak up for America." He said, "We cannot let the apostles of defeatism and self-doubt chip away at our moral strength."

From New York, following a breakfast meeting with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Nixon was bound today for Springfield, Ill., to pay homage to Abraham Lincoln who made his home there and to visit the Illinois State Fair. The fair traditionally is a magnet for campaigning politicians. But the White House insisted that Nixon's journey was nonpolitical.

Campaigners also frequently find it opportune to address national conventions of veterans' organizations, and Nixon will do that Thursday, stopping in Dallas to talk to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, before proceeding to his California home for a two-week stay.

The President, whose wife Pat is making her own cross-country tour, arranged to spend Wednesday night at a secluded lodge in Grand Teton National Park in northwestern Wyoming.

Mrs. Nixon's simultaneous trip has the announced purpose of calling public attention to the President's program for creating more recreation and park areas.

Congress Favorable To Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon appears likely to get essentially the economic legislation he has asked from the Democratic-controlled Congress, although pressure is forecast for more tax relief for individuals.

The White House declared itself pleased with the tone of a 2 1/2-hour discussion Tuesday that brought together the President, some of his top advisers, and key members of the Senate and House.

While apparently no commitments were made by Democrats to support the legislation in exactly the form Nixon has suggested, they reportedly were predominantly in favor of the thrust of his proposals.

In other economic developments Tuesday:

—The administration asked labor unions to end current strikes and not start any new ones during the 90-day wage-price-rent freeze, and hinted at mandatory back-to-work orders for workers who refuse.

Big unions withheld immediate comment, and reaction by smaller unions varied, some removing picket lines and others vowing to stay out.

—The Office of Emergency Preparedness, charged with policing Nixon's order, contributed to the confusion. It first said state and local governments are not subject to the pay raise freeze, later said the matter is up in the air.

—The OEP said unprocessed agricultural commodities such as grains, vegetables and fruits are exempt from the price freeze, but others such as beefsteak, bread, pasteurized milk and frozen foods are covered.

—Ford Motor Co., which had considered seeking authority to hike prices on five models of 1972 cars, joined the other big auto manufacturers in rolling prices back to 1971 levels.

—Treasury Undersecretary Paul Volcker, returning from a two-day trip to London and Paris, said no decision has been made on Britain's request for a meeting of the non-Communist world's 10 leading industrial nations to discuss monetary reform.

Presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon fully acknowledged the Democratic contributions of ideas incorporated into his economic package, urged a bipartisan approach and said there will be credit for all in a successful effort to pull the country out of its economic difficulties.

But in private conversations, Capitol Hill sources speculated that Democrats will feel imped to try harder to put their own mark on the bill finally enacted.

Before Nixon's dramatic reversal Sunday of his earlier, cautious approach to direct government intervention in the economy, Democrats had been counting heavily on a 1972 campaign issue geared to inflation and unemployment and what they would call Nixon's unwillingness to deal boldly with that issue.

If Democrats attempt a significant change, it would be a

9 Facing More Punishment In Connection With My Lai

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five officers and four enlisted men, cleared of criminal charges stemming from the My Lai massacre, face new disciplinary action, a Pentagon source says.

It was learned Tuesday that Secretary of the Army Robert F. Froehke, in his first involvement with the My Lai affair since being sworn in July 1, sent letters last week to the nine officers and enlisted men, notifying them of the planned administrative punishment.

At the same time, it was against administrative punishment for five other officers also charged with covering up the 1968 massacre.

The Army acknowledged Froehke has made a decision in the case, but refused to discuss the report.

Pentagon sources say the five officers were told they would be censured or reprimanded. Some also were notified they are to be stripped of medals for valor and merit earned while serving with the Americal Division at the time of the My Lai incident. The officers range in rank from a full colonel to captain.

The four enlisted men were told they will be given honorable discharges, it was learned, whether they had planned to leave the Army or not.

At the time the Army marked the men's files for further investigation, officials said the purpose was to determine whether the officers' and enlisted men's performances had met Army standards.

Each of the nine was given 30 days to submit a defense and to show cause why the dis-

The enlisted men facing discharge are: Staff Sgt. Kenneth L. Hodges, 26, of Dublin, Ga.; Pvt. Max D. Hutson, 24, Attica, Ind.; Cpl. Kenneth Schiel, 24, Swartz Creek, Mich., and Sgt. Esequiel Torres, 23, Brownsville, Tex.

Names of the officers involved were not disclosed.

Staff Sgt. David Mitchell, 31, of St. Francisville, La., the only other enlisted man from the platoon led by 1st Lt. William L. Calley at My Lai still in the service, will be allowed to continue his Army career. Mitchell has been acquitted by a court-martial of criminal charges.

Calley was convicted of premeditated murder of 102 Vietnamese civilians and given a life sentence which is now under review. Twenty-four other officers and enlisted men originally were charged either with involvement in the massacre or covering it up.

Calley's company commander, Capt. Ernest L. Medina, is being court-martialed on murder charges. The court-martial of Col. Oran K. Henderson, a division brigade commander, will resume Monday at Ft. Meade, Md.

Arab Countries Examine Plans For Federation

BEIRUT (AP) — The presidents of Egypt, Libya and Syria are meeting in Damascus today to review details of their plan to federate their three countries in the next two weeks.

They are also discussing the conflict with Israel, the border fighting between Syria and Jordan, the feud between King Hussein and the Palestinian guerrillas, and the rift between the Sudanese and Soviet governments.

The Libyan strongman, Col. Muammar Kaddafi, arrived Tuesday night and met with President Hafez Assad of Syria.

President Anwar Sadat of Egypt was flying to Damascus today to join the discussions. It is the first visit to Syria by an Egyptian president in 10 years.

Sadat's predecessor, the late President Gamal Abdel Nasser, visited Damascus in 1961 shortly before a revolt by Syrian officers took Syria out of the United Arab Republic which Egypt and Syria had formed four years before.

Nasser conceived the federation idea, and Sadat, Assad and Kaddafi have vowed to make it a success. The Sudanese government is preparing to join the federation, perhaps by the end of the year, and sent a high-level observer to the conference.

The new state is to be called the Federation of Arab Republics. It will include about 42 million people, with Egypt having a population more than six times the other two combined.

The people of the three countries are to vote in a plebiscite Sept. 1 to approve the federal constitution and the federation's fundamental principles.

The constitution is still being prepared and is one of the subjects to be discussed today.

The three presidents were also to coordinate their plans for the U.N. General Assembly opening next month, when Egypt is expected to launch a diplomatic offensive to gain support against Israel.

Meanwhile, the Arab cause needs a quick settlement of the Syria-Jordan conflict. The two countries fought fierce battles on their border last week, and only Sadat's personal intervention has kept the border quiet since Friday. He was expected to urge Assad to reduce his border and perhaps to renew contacts with Hussein.

The fighting stemmed from Assad's opposition to Hussein's successful crackdown on Palestinian guerrillas last month.

Sadat and King Faisal of Saudi Arabia have been trying to mediate between Hussein and the guerrillas but with little success.

British Troops Kill Terrorist

LONDON (AP) — Northern Ireland (AP) — British troops killed a terrorist gunman in a dawn shootout across Londonderry barricades today as Roman Catholic charges of army brutality mounted.

Snipers believed to be members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army fired at the soldiers as they began tearing down barricades closing off the city's Catholic Bogside district.

The unidentified man was the 27th person to die since violence erupted in the British province 10 days ago.

The IRA is fighting to unite the six Protestant-dominated counties of the north with the Catholic Irish Republic to the south.

New Import Tax Could Reduce Trade

Economists Set Further Meetings On Nixon Moves

LONDON (AP) — The European Common Market warned today that President Nixon's surcharge on imports could cancel the results of the Kennedy Round of tariff reductions and reduce international trade.

The Common Market's executive commission, called back hurriedly from vacation, met for five hours in Brussels Wednesday night for its first assessment of Nixon's imposition of a 10 per cent surtax on foreign manufactured goods and suspension of the dollar's ties to gold.

The British government, meanwhile, prepared to stave off any diversion of cheap Japanese goods from America, and Europe's foreign exchange markets remained closed for a third day. The Tokyo foreign exchange market calmed down after a two-day selling spurge, and the Japanese government maintained its opposition to the revaluation of the yen which is one of Nixon's chief goals.

The Common Market commission said Nixon's move threw into question the principles on which the postwar international monetary system was founded and which favored the development of trade.

The U.S. measures, it warned in a postmidnight statement, "will have a negative effect on international trade and could in fact cancel the results of the Kennedy Round."

Calling for joint action by market members and prospective members, probably Britain, the commission was meeting again today to prepare for a special session on Thursday of cabinet ministers from the six member governments—France, West Germany, the Netherlands, Italy, Belgium and Luxembourg—and Britain.

A spokesman said he could neither confirm nor deny a report that the community is moving toward freeing all its six currencies to let their values in terms of the U.S. dollar be determined by the demand on the open market. But he said the community is seeking a unanimous decision.

The West German mark and the Dutch guilder already float set free in the monetary crisis last May, and the Belgian-Luxembourg franc is uncontrolled for some transactions.

Neither the French nor the Italian government has given any indication of willingness to free the franc or the lira, but some

Air Action Hits Peak Along DMZ

SAIGON (AP) — Half the B52 bombers in Southeast Asia today made the heaviest strikes in a year along the demilitarized zone, and South Vietnamese commanders predicted heavier enemy rocket and mortar attacks along the northern frontier.

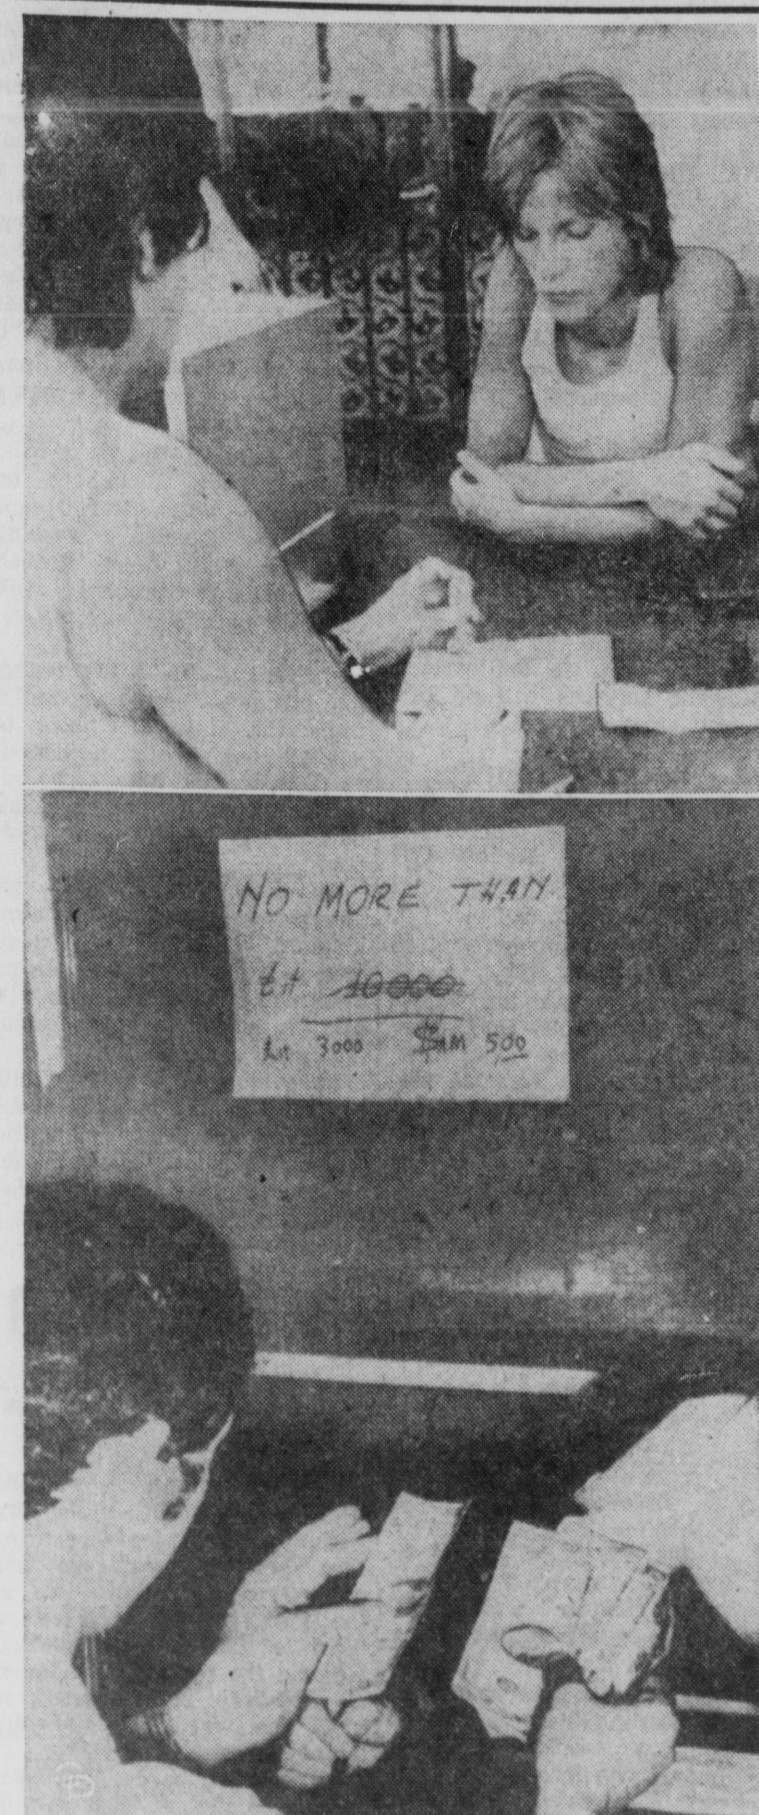

As fighting continued along the DMZ for the seventh day, Cambodian troops claimed about 100 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in a battle in southeastern Cambodia. The Cambodian command said four government troops were killed and five were wounded.

About 25 B52s from Thailand dropped 750 tons of bombs on suspected North Vietnamese positions inside the southern half of the DMZ and southward for 15 miles.

Most of the strikes were at the western end of the DMZ defense line, around 1,500-foot Mt. Ba Ho and neighboring Fire Base Fuller and Sarge, which came under new attack. A company of South Vietnamese marines was driven from an outpost on Ba Ho last Sunday and suffered heavy losses.

Half a dozen new shelling attacks and three ground clashes were reported, including a 100-round rocket and mortar barrage against Sarge.

At least nine North Vietnamese and five South Vietnamese were reported killed and 17 South Vietnamese wounded.

DOLLAR WOES PLAGUE U.S. TOURISTS — With major European gold and money markets in a turmoil following President Nixon's save-the-dollar moves, American tourists are finding the going rough. No Legislation Passed In Brief Council Meeting

With two councilmen vacationing, Circleville's legislative body whizzed through Tuesday's meeting in less than half an hour.

Two ordinances were read and held to the first reading. Both involved the transfer of funds within department accounts.

One ordinance authorized the transfer of $820 from the health department nurse and clerk hire fund to the food operating fund, salaries. The other authorized the transfer of $225 from the auditor's furniture and fixture and fixture fund to the auditor's incidentals account.

Councilmen absent were David Crawford and Harold Clifton.

Labor Ready For Showdown On Pay Freeze

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organized labor, suspicious and confused about President Nixon's wage-price freeze and a call for no strikes during the freeze, is bracing for a face-to-face showdown meeting with administration leaders.

Labor leaders already had a long list of issues to be clarified at Thursday's meeting before J. Curtis Counts, chief federal mediator, announced late Tuesday the administration was asking for an end to current strikes and a moratorium on any new ones until the 90-day freeze ends.

Nixon tapped a top economic adviser, George Schultz, and Secretary of Labor J.D. Hodgson to respond to questions and criticism of AFL-CIO President George Meany, who called the freeze a bonanza for businessmen that would make workers suffer most.

"Mr. Meany appears to be sadly out of step with the needs and desires of America's working men and women," said Hodgson.

Schultz, director of the White House Office of Management and Budget, and Hodgson are to meet with the AFL-CIO's 35-man executive council to answer questions about the freeze and strike moratorium.

The federation, Teamsters and United Auto Workers unions had no immediate comment on Counts' request, which was underlined by the hint of legal action to enforce a no-strike period.

"A strike or lockout may be considered as anti-stabilizing and a violation of the Economic Stabilization Act," Counts said. But he said voluntary compliance would be sought in all cases.

Leaders of the 13.6-million-member labor federation voiced a host of questions and criticisms in advance of the meeting.

"We want to know what happens to all these labor contracts in existence including the obligations of employers to pay more money under wage step-ups," said a spokesman for Meany.

Government sources said such wage hikes, along with others, were included under Nixon's 90-day freeze.

"What about companies that have already raised prices based on what future costs will be, and now the costs will be held down because they won't have to pay wage increases, and at the same time there is (Continued on Page 2)

Power Plant Discharges Said Safe

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Ohio Water Pollution Control Board has been assured that discharges from a nuclear power plant proposed for near Moscow would be "well within" existing standards for water quality.

During a five-hour hearing Tuesday, representatives of the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co., Dayton Power and Light Co., and Columbus & Southern Ohio Power & Light Co., made the assurances.

The three utility companies are planning to build the William H. Zimmer Power Station but the pollution control board must certify that the plant would meet water quality standards.

Dr. T. A. Gardner, chairman of the board, said the certification question would be considered at one of the board's monthly meetings, but he was uncertain when a decision would be made.

Representatives of the utility companies said the plant would draw water from the Ohio River for use in the service water system to cool equipment and dilute radioactive wastes and then be returned to the river. Some water would be used to convey contaminated solid particles to a settling pond, and the water would be released into the river 24 hours later.

But the representatives emphasized that the discharges would not come near violating existing water quality standards.

Also speaking at the hearing was an official of the Environmental Protection Agency. He raised no objections to certification of the plant but said that the EPA would make a separate response on the handling of radioactive wastes.

Annual Mount Of Praise Camp Meeting Scheduled

DR. DONALD E. SNOW

REV. DONOVAN HUMBLE

MORTON W. DORSEY

Thousands of people are converging on Circleville with the Mount of Praise Camp meeting scheduled to open this week.

The annual event, held at 459 E. Ohio St., brings more people to Circleville than any other single event except Pumpkin Show, camp meeting officials say.

The attendance at camp this year is expected to match or even surpass that of past years when more than ten thousand people have been seen on the camp grounds at one time. The tabernacle, which seats 4,000, has often been filled to capacity while additional throngs of people pressed around the open sides.

The camp opens 7:30 p.m. Thursday with a youth rally in the tabernacle. The camp meeting services will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday and continue with three preaching services daily through August 29.

THE Thursday night Youth Rally will feature the Strickland trio of Washington, C. H., followed by a message by Rev. Joe Johnson of Newport, on the theme of the rally, "Christ Adds Joy to Life."

Song evangelist for the camp meeting is Sam Allred of Greensboro, N. C. Allred was song evangelist for the 1969 Mount of Praise Camp and won the hearts of the people with his song leading and beautiful solos.

Three evangelists will share the preaching duties each day at 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Donald E. Snow of Grand Rapids, Michigan, returns this year. Dr. Snow was one of the evangelists for the 1970 camp. His great Bible preaching prompted the camp committee to invite him back to Mount of Praise Camp.

Rev. Donovan Humble of Piketon is a well known evangelist. He has preached in camp meetings and revivals for many years. His sermons have been heard at the Circleville Camp many times before.

Rev. Morton W. Dorsey returns to Mount of Praise Camp as one of the Evangelists this year. Rev. Dorsey served several years as president of Circleville Bible College, has served as president of the National Holiness Assn., and is well known as a camp meeting evangelist.

MEMBERS of the camp committee are W. L. Cozad, camp chairman; Jack Born, Joe Johnson, Charles Jenkins, Paul Mercer, Melvin Truex Sr. The camp is sponsored by the Churches of Christ in Christian Union.

In addition to adult services there are planned activities for youth and for children.

Here is the daily schedule:

Rising bell, 6 a.m.; prayer and praise, 6:15 a.m.; breakfast, 7:30 a.m.; missionary service, 8:30 a.m.; children's service, 10:30 a.m.; preaching service, 10:30 a.m.; dinner, noon; preaching service, 2 p.m.; supper, 4:45 p.m.; Bell taps for prayer, 5:45 p.m.; ring meeting, 6 p.m.; youth choir rehearsal, 6:30 p.m.; children's service, 7:30 p.m.; song service, 7:30 p.m.; preaching service, 8:15 p.m.; quiet time, 10:30 p.m.; lights out, 11 p.m.

School Bus Stops Are Established For Williamsport

Westfall Superintendent Donald F. Shearer has announced the school bus stops which have been established within the village of Williamsport to pick-up and discharge students attending Jackson School.

Established stops for students residing south of Route 22 are in front of: Charlie Wallace's home, Cook's Salvage, Ron Beatty's home, Earl Lanman's home, First National Bank, Warren Wright's home.

Children residing north of Route 22 are to meet in front of the school gymnasium. The superintendent strongly recommends that since there will be no crossing watchman at Route 22 to assist the children across the busy highway that they meet at the stop closest to their residences.

no attempt to freeze profits and interest rates?" added the labor spokesman.

Labor leaders at the meeting also are expected to ask Shultz and Hodgson about the effect of freezing wages, but letting some food prices escape the price freeze.

"The President's suggested freeze on prices does not extend to unprocessed food even though the average working family spends 28 per cent of its total take-home pay for food," said President Floyd Smith of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists, one of the federation's executive council members.

"Obviously, it will be far easier for employers to enforce an effective wage freeze than for scattered multitudes of consumers to enforce an effective price freeze," Smith added.

Government officials confirmed Nixon's exemption of "raw agricultural commodities" probably will apply at the supermarket to such unprocessed items as eggs and fresh fruits and vegetables. They added that processed foods—such as meats, butter, bread, pasteurized milk and frozen foods—will be covered by the price freeze.

Smith, whose union had started negotiating new contracts for many of the nation's 225,000 aerospace and airline workers, said the freeze is unfair to many workers.

"Especially glaring will be the inequities that will be left hanging between industries, such as steel and automobile in which long-term contracts have already been ratified and those, such as aerospace, in which negotiations are just getting started," Smith said.

"In effect, the nation's chief executive has become the nation's chief strikebreaker," he said.

In New York, Communications Workers of America said it will not stop its strike against the telephone company. "We are not going back to work," said Don Keenana, president of Local 1103 of the CWA, which has 38,500 persons on strike across New York State. Local leaders were to meet today to discuss the overall freeze effects.

In San Francisco, the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, whose members have tied up West Coast ports for weeks had no comment.

Stoutsville Concerned About Weeds, Cars

Mayor Goble Branham presided at the regular meeting of Stoutsville Council Monday evening.

Members accepted the second reading of ordinance adjusting salary of village marshal and street commissioner. A letter was read from taxpayer concerning cars being parked on sidewalks and weeds overgrowing walks in one area of village. The mayor instructed the marshal to enforce no parking on sidewalks. The village will have weeds cut.

Several complaints were received from residents Street commissioner was authorized to buy ten posts for new signs to be erected. The mayor reminded village residents that anyone making an opening in street, sidewalk must have permission from council before doing so. He also issued warning against dumping into and obstructing tile in village. Members present were Councilmen Gail Goldsberry, James Lovett, Max Marshall, Lloyd Meyer, Ellsworth Wright and Clerk Mary E. Meyer.

Billfold Lost

William Strawser, 207 E. Mill St., told Circleville Police he lost his billfold in the area of Clinton and Mound Streets. The billfold contained $1 and important personal papers.

significant reshaping of the Nixon plan, they might focus on more help for inflation-plagued consumers. Some critics, in and out of politics, already are saying the plan is weighted heavily with aids for business.

Nixon wants an investment credit enabling businesses to recoup 10 per cent of their spending on productive equipment, repeal of the 7-per-cent automobile excise tax and a speedup—but not an extension—of already-scheduled personal exemption increases for income tax and of the minimum standard deduction that helps low-income taxpayers.

The President already has imposed a 10 per cent extra charge on imports.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican on the House Ways and Means Committee, sounded a warning after the White House session that pressure probably will build for more personal tax relief.

"Anybody with a tax reduction bill in his pocket could think that this the place to put it," Byrnes told newsmen. "I think we will have to be restrained when it comes to going beyond what has been proposed."

An effort to increase, not merely advance, the minimum standard deduction is considered possible. Ways and Means Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., is known to have considered such a possibility.

Since Sunday, however, Mills has said nothing publicly about amending the Nixon plan. He praised it generally but suggested it may not go far enough.

No Legislation

centrating on a street improvement program this year.

A COMPLAINT on weeds growing in a lot in Garden City was also aired. Jones reported the service department has mowed weeds on two lots in the area but he had seen a third lot that needed mowing. He said the service department was waiting until ordered to mow the weeds by the city board of health.

Mayor Richard Gerhardt announced that at least part of the noise nuisance created by Pennsylvania Railroad engines running constantly although not in use had been eliminated.

The mayor reported a letter has been received from Lake Shore Systems announcing the abandonment of a bus route through Kingston.

Present at last night's meeting were councilmen Goldschmidt, Frank Barnhill, Keith Wagner, Gladden Troutman and Samuel (Pete) Cook, president Joe Bell, clerk Robert Shadley, the mayor, service director and fire chief Bernard Wolfe.

Two Injured In Collision

Two persons were injured and two cars heavily damaged in a wreck on Edison Ave. at Court St. 5:44 p.m. Tuesday.

Taken to Berger Hospital for treatment of lacerations and other injuries were Norman Dean Gilliam, 25, Chillicothe, and Emma Maxine Curlett, Route 1.

A parked car was also damaged as a result of the collision. Mrs. Curlett was stopped at the intersection when her car was hit in the rear by the auto driven by Gilliam. Gilliam told investigating officers his brakes failed and he was unable to avoid the collision.

Earthquake Cycle

Not since 1906 has the world experienced a series of earthquakes as violent as those of 1971. Unlike the five strong quakes of 65 years ago — which included the destructive San Francisco tremor — the 1971 series has occurred mainly, but not exclusively, in non-populated areas.

The severity of some of them, however, has led geologists to ponder the possibility that a bad earthquake cycle is just getting under way.

Fortunately for human life, the great mass of the planet which is uninhabited does provide odds against a severe earth movement occurring in a populous spot. Many explode harmlessly in the oceans. But with the frequency of the 1971 tremors those odds are diminishing.

Geological observers are not alone in hoping the current underground fire-works have already become history. Natural science, unlike the physical sciences, takes nothing for granted.

Nature has a well-developed knack for acting up when least expected.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Mental illnesses have become a leading cause why students drop out of college before graduating.

What can a man believe? The so-called tin can actually is 99 per cent steel and only 1 per cent tin. Incidentally, if so many of them weren't thrown off the road by litter-making motorists, the tin cans we produce each year could cover a four-lane highway encircling the earth more than three times.

The year-round school is the most challenging and controversial new idea in the U.S. educational field. At least 1,000 of the nation's school districts are considering plans to keep schools open 12 months a year with pupils attending three of the four quarters.

You may not be slowing down, but the earth is. If its spinning rate continues to decline at the present rate, some scientists say, we will have a 25-hour day—in a mere 1.8 million centuries or so.

One of the reported differences between men and women is that women lie about their age, men about their incomes. Will this still be true when the average wife's income equals that of her husband?

Idiosyncrasy: The Spanish explorer Balboa was a man of strong prejudices. He disliked lawyers so much that for 10 years he successfully kept them out of the West Indies.

Some ice cube: If we run out of drinking water, we may have to find a way to melt part of the South Pole's ice cap. It contains 80 per cent of the world's supply of natural fresh water, according to the National Geographic Society.

Worth remembering: "The best way to be known as the meanest man in town is simply to have more money than your neighbors."

Household hint: To keep your bathroom mirrors from steaming up, rub them with glycerine from time to time.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon's abrupt change of economic policy came only after masses of evidence showed that his stand-pat posture was working only to make his leadership appear anemic.

From the first month in office, Nixon had asserted in one way or another that any course of direct intervention, such as through controls, would be sabotaged by gremlins living in a jungle of red tape and blue pencils.

The course he chose relied entirely on what economists believed was the slow but permanent changes that could be brought about by financial and monetary policy. Personal leadership and presidential power were shunned.

But, as inflation and unemployment continued, and as the price of American goods began to force them out of markets, the President found it harder to look on the bright side of things.

Statistical evidence from the government itself undermined all the promises and assurances. His office was put in the embarrassing position of always promising that things would be better next month. They weren't.

Surveys of consumer confidence showed that the President wasn't believed, and that his attempts to assure the people sometimes made them suspicious that things might be worse than they actually were.

The criticism came from all directions. Arthur Burns, who had been appointed head of the Federal Reserve Board by Nixon, began insisting on a more vigorous policy of wage and price restraints.

And the jabs became sharper from the President's political foes. Sighting what they interpreted to be a vacuum of leadership, Democratic and Republican critics made plans to seize the initiative.

The failure of the President's policies to hold down wage and price increases, it is widely believed, resulted from knowledge that he was rigidly against interjecting himself into the marketplace.

If labor or management had any fear that they might incur his wrath or counter-action by raising their charges, it was dispelled by none other than the President himself in frequent statements.

This left openings for both big business and big labor to defy the "laws" of the marketplace. Pressured by rising costs, they sought relief in raises, despite high unemployment and lagging orders.

Business and labor leaders said they couldn't be blamed, that they had little choice but to raise their rates if they were to keep faith with their shareholders or membership.

Nevertheless, both made it known that they didn't like the situation and feared the consequences of the inflation spiral.

In the consumer polls, which were received by the White House, the fears of blue collar workers were shown to be intensifying. Confidence went into a tailspin after May. Blue collar workers talked of strike controls.

It became widely accepted that there was a gap at the top which provided a flue for the heat spiral of wages and prices. From every direction therefore—from economists, businessmen, politicians, associates, consumers—the pressure was on the President to plug the gap, and he did so.

The firmness with which he reversed policy was totally unexpected. Many critics thought the President was too set against such action.

In acting so decisively, Nixon could have had in mind the 1969 election, in which he believes he lost the presidency because of a recession. That fear could have been revived.

At any rate, in versing himself the President has irreversibly changed not only the American economy and those of countries related to it through commerce, but has changed the domestic political scene for 1972.

Try and Stop Me

AN ARMY captain in Vietnam, checking on his charges during an early morning lull, was outraged when a young "grunt," minus weapon or helmet, jumped out of a bunker to greet him.

"Soldier," barked the captain, "don't you challenge anyone you hear approaching your hide-out?" "Yes, sir," replied the abashed draftee, "but this time we thought you were the guy who brings us coffee and crullers every morning. The last time we challenged him, he dropped the coffee!"

Compelled by law to submit to a Wasserman test before committing matrimony, a member of New York's swinging set returned home with a very low opinion of the operation. "I don't get it," he admitted. "They stick a needle in your vein and absolutely nothing happens!"

QUICKIES: A parsimonious husband found a new excuse for not giving his wife the milk she long had craved. "You're too careless," he explained. "You'd never keep its cage clean."

An impetuous suitor was fined twenty-five bucks for necking with his girl on a thoroughway. The charge: driving while infatuated.

A starlet, asked how her latest romance was progressing, reported, "It's reached the serious stage. He's trying to get away!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I have a stomach ulcer and there is no doubt that I am a hard-driving, tense person.

Now I am being hounded by my family to stop smoking. This nagging only increases my tension. Because of this, I wonder if it isn't better that I continue to smoke.

Mr. J. E., III. Dear Mr. E.: Your letter portrays honestly a problem of many patients who have a stomach or duodenal ulcer.

I believe that patients with stomach ulcers are better off without tobacco. Yet I do understand the conflict you are caught in.

Sometimes it is necessary to balance advantages versus disadvantages in making a decision.

Perhaps it would be wise to discuss your emotional responses with your physician and ask him to help get your family off your back during this difficult time. Nagging is not the way to convince you to stop smoking. It can do you a great emotional injustice.

I think you will probably stop smoking when you are convinced that your best chance for a complete cure is without tobacco.

Pressures to stop smoking put upon ulcer patients by doctors depend upon how acute the ulcer problem is. From a scientific point of view, it has been felt that tobacco irritates the stomach lining and, more important, affects the blood supply to an ulcer.

Tobacco also is believed to increase the amount of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, which is a factor in causing pain and irritation of the ulcer.

A dramatic series of scientific studies, performed at the University of Oklahoma Medical School, shows more definitely that nicotine in the blood interferes with secretions from the pancreas and the gall bladder that normally buffer excess acid.

Findings in experimental animals seem to point to a very definite reason why abstinence from tobacco should be part of an ulcer regime.

Mind you, I am not nagging you, Mr. E., but I do hope these scientific facts will give you new insight into the wisdom of giving up tobacco.

I would like to share with your readers my special way of stopping hiccups. When they happen to me I press the cartilage on the front of my ear until the ear canal is blocked.

Keep State Out Of Schools

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Rockford, Ill. — The voucher plan, which would permit people to "cash" their share of the tax funds allotted to education at schools of their own choice, continues to have a mixed reception from conservatives.

Though a voucher system would obviously help private schools, and save the proclial schools from going under, many conservatives fear that government would inevitably dictate its standards to educational institutions once they had become dependent on voucher support.

The fear of government domination following up indirect subsidy through vouchers may be overwrought, if only because government-sanctioned, accrediting bodies impose uniform standards of education on private schools anyway. Nevertheless, the fear saps the drive of the voucher proponents, despite the lucid arguments presented for voucher plans by such economists as Dr. Yale Brozen and Dr. Milton Friedman of the University of Chicago.

As a way of by-passing the pro and con arguments in the voucher fight, President John Howard of Rockford College thinks he has a better idea. He offered it informally at a symposium on education sponsored by the Mont Pelerin Society of economists at the Rockford College campus. Briefly, Dr. Howard would allow anybody to deduct up to $100 flat from his income tax by presenting evidence that an equal sum of money had been sent to a school of his choice.

Curiously enough, Dr. Howard's own Rockford College, which follows a policy of refusing to take government subsidies of any kind, seems to be flourishing without benefit of either vouchers or donations that might be taken as a 100 per cent tax deduction. Indeed, the news gathered from educators at the Mont Pelerin meeting shows a heartening resolve to support new private colleges dedicated to keeping government influence at arm's length.

Arthur Seiden, editorial director of the Institute of Economic Affairs in London, who came to Rockford to talk about the anemic performance of the British welfare state, brought news of a new private university which his fellow conservatives in Britain are starting in Buckinghamshire.

Another participant in the Mont Pelerin program, Manuel Ayau of Guatemala, told of his efforts to get a similar university off the ground in Guatemala City. Ayau's institution will open its doors in 1972; its faculty will teach an anti-statist brand of economics that is almost unknown today in Latin American universities, where everything is Keynesian when it is not out-and-out Marxist.

As for the U.S. itself, one cannot fail to be impressed by the visual evidence that Dr. Howard's own Rockford has succeeded in carrying forward a great building program with money wholly derived from private sources.

Consumer To Pay New Import Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite President Nixon's wage-price freeze, importers will be allowed to pass on to American consumers the cost of the new 10 per cent duty on foreign-produced goods.

The Treasury issued the ruling late Monday, after being bombarded with queries from importers who feared they would be caught in a squeeze between the price ceiling and the increased tax surcharge.

The flood of inquiries touched off by Nixon's mammoth economic package continues unabated at the Treasury and Labor departments and at the Office of Emergency Preparedness.

The following questions and answers on the freeze are based on official texts and statements, and the replies of agency spokesmen concerned.

Q. How can a consumer check on whether a merchant is complying with the freeze?

A. The presidential order requires that all persons in the business of selling or providing goods or services must "maintain for public inspection a record of the highest prices or rents charged for such or similar commodities during the 30-day period ending Aug. 14, 1971."

Q. Are dividend payments and interest charges also frozen to previous levels?

A. Nixon has asked the nation's bankers to hold the line on interest. Lacking authority to control dividends, he is asking corporations voluntarily not to raise their dividend payments.

Q. What about profit margins?

A. Not covered. The ban on price increases is expected to hold profits down.

Q. What is the ceiling level?

A. Until Nov. 12, no price or wage may exceed the level that prevailed in the month ended Aug. 14, 1971. A lower price may be charged, but not a higher.

Q. Does the freeze apply to wages paid and services provided by state and local governments as well as private businesses?

A. Yes. Texas and some other states have approved pay increases for state government workers to take effect Sept. 1, but the presidential order calls for postponement of the increase until freeze ends.

Q. Can state universities raise tuitions to take effect when school starts in September? Can state public utility commissions grant rate increases?

A. The rates can be raised, but the increases cannot take effect until expiration of the freeze on Nov. 12, 1971.

Q. What about school teachers who have signed pay contracts to take effect with the opening of school in September?

A. The official answer, at this moment, is that the pay increase must be postponed. But a Treasury statement is reported in the works and may modify or clarify the government's position.

Q. Will Nixon's proposed repeal of the 7-per-cent excise tax bring a rollback in the price of new cars?

A. Yes, but only when Congress actually enacts the repeal legislation. Nixon said he will insist that the excise saving, averaging about $200 per car, be passed on to consumers.

Q. If a scheduled wage increase is deferred because of the freeze, can the workers get the increase retroactively when the freeze ends?

A. No ruling has been made. There is no language in the President's order or White House explanatory statements providing for retroactive payment.

Q. Oregon has a cigarette tax scheduled to take effect Sept. 9. This would raise the price of cigarettes. Is such a tax increase blocked by the freeze?

A. The presidential order does not mention tax increases, and some officials doubt that a federal order could legally interfere with a state tax action.

Q. What about the 1972 model auto prices, announced by most of the companies but not yet in effect?

A. Unless the increased prices were in effect on Aug. 14 they must wait until the freeze ends.

Q. What happens when the 90-day freeze expires?

A. Secretary Connally says: "I don't know." The followup procedure is to be worked out by the new cabinet-level Cost of Living Council. Nixon has directed its members to work with industry and labor leaders "to set up a proper mechanism for achieving continued price and wage stability."

Q. Does that mean some kind of wage-price review board, or what?

A. Officials so far have not even given any hints.

Plan Protest At San Diego

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman says he and other activists are making plans for protests in San Diego next summer at the Republican National Convention.

Hoffman was at a news conference Monday where three leaders of the May Day demonstrations in Washington burned what they said were subpoenas ordering them to appear before a federal grand jury in Detroit probing the bombing of the U. S. Capitol.

The three said they would refuse to answer all questions.

"We dug the Capitol bombing but we didn't do it," said Ken Kelley, 20, of Detroit.

He said the three also refused to answer the same grand jury's questions last June.

Kelley was joined by Terry Taube, 18, also of Detroit, and Michael Tola, 21, Chapel Hill, N. C.

They accused the grand jury of being a part of a federal government conspiracy to block antiwar protests.

"Thousands of us will be in San Diego at the Republican National Convention," Tola said, reading from a joint statement.

"Everywhere Dick Nixon appears on the campaign trail, he'll be faced with thousands of angry, young people."

Daybook of America 1771...1871...1971 By CLARK KINNAIRD

No. 98 With the death of Frederick Calvert, 6th Baron Baltimore, in 1771, the title became extinct. Having no legitimate son, he devised proprietorship of the 137-year-old Maryland colony to his natural son, Henry Harford. Henry, born in Ireland to Hester Wheland, was then a nine-year-old school pupil. Before he was old enough to enjoy the bequest, Maryland was in rebellion and the Calvert estates were seized. Harford had to come to Maryland after the War of Independence, as a petitioner of the free government for some compensation for his property rights. After a long time he was awarded some $90,000—minus, naturally, substantial exactions by his lawyers. Meanwhile, he made himself at home. He was chosen provincial grandmaster of Masons. Besides the money from Maryland legislature, Harford was to have the satisfaction of a Maryland county bearing his name (as do several other Maryland counties of legitimate Calverts, including Anne Arundel, wife of the second Lord Baltimore).

If Harford had succeeded to the governorship, he would not have been the first in the colonies to be of illegitimate birth. William Franklin, royal governor of New Jersey, 1762-1776, was born out of wedlock.

Cecil Calvert, 2nd Baron Baltimore, and his son, the future 3rd Baron Baltimore, each with hand on map of proprietary colony the father founded. Original painting by Gerard Soest, reproduced in J. A. Hammerton's Concise Universal Biography. The original is at Enoch Pratt Free Public Library, Baltimore, where full-color prints can be purchased.

NOTE: The original Calvert proprietorship in America was "Avalon," with a seat of government called "Perryland," in Newfoundland. The first Baron Baltimore visited it between 1627-1629, found the climate rigorously discouraging to colonists, and persuaded the monarch to make him a new grant in the area already claimed by Virginia settlers.

THURSDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are likely to be too demanding in trying to put your good ideas across. However, a lot of energy is now released and if you act with more consideration than is expected you can gain the confidence of others. Then you will be in the mood to move forward and do the things you had planned.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to April 19) A day to see as many friends and relations as you can and talk over future plans. Try not to act in a forceful way with others. Use diplomacy with all for best results. Show that you are wise.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Choose your words wisely when speaking with higer-ups. Forget being so blunt and you get along much better. You have been losing too many friends that way. Show more consideration to others.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Use that good mind for a new approach at existing affairs which could make them more successful. Please others more. Study new data given you and know how to use it wisely.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Make sure you keep promises to the letter and you improve existing conditions. You must make those changes where mate is concerned. Don't try to renege now or you get into trouble.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Your associate is irate, so use soft tones and show that you are loyal and all will be fine again. Reconciling with others is also important. Then relax tonight with good friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan a schedule of work that must be done. Nothing is worse than having nothing to do. Plan a way to increase benefits. Don't turn away a friend who needs your help now more than ever.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you will listen to what a new acquaintance has to say, you will profit immensely by it. A business ally does not care for your ideas, but they are good nonetheless.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you use a different approach, you can handle those problematical affairs at home. Listen to what higher-up expects of you so that you do not make any errors. Catch up on reading tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You have good ideas that require more study before you can put them in operation successfully. Taking particular care in travel is vital now. Don't accept forceful views of an out-of-towner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Handling business affairs with care now makes the future easier, otherwise you can get into much trouble. Don't jump into a new project you know little about. Obtain advice from monetary expert.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Don't get so emotional about a situation that you get into a locked-horns situation with associate. Use reason instead of temper. Smile more and clear up anything of a controversial nature.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) If you start on that mountain of work ahead of you instead of tossing your head dejectedly, you'll be surprised how much you can accomplish. All you need is a more positive attitude.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those energetic young people who has real charm but must be taught to use a more diplomatic approach toward others if the fine promise here is to be realized. Otherwise your progeny could possibly go through life and incur the enmity instead of the admiration of others. Send to the right school where ethics is taught. Religious training is important.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Auto Makers Slash Prices

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. auto industry appeared in better shape to battle with import cars in the wake of decisions by General Motors and Ford to roll back their 1972 prices.

Chrysler and American Motors were expected to follow the lead of the nation's two largest auto companies, which called off proposed, sizable price boosts Monday in line with President Nixon's wage-price-freeze.

Ford was the first to shelve hikes on the 1972 models just coming to dealer showrooms. It cancelled—at least for the 90 days of President Nixon's temporary controls program—a proposed increase averaging $200 or 5.2 per cent.

GM did likewise three hours later, saying its cars would be marketed at 1971 prices for the Nixon 90-day program.

GM, largest of the automakers, had proposed increases which it said averaged out to $166 or 4.5 per cent.

Chrysler had posted increases similar to those at Ford while American Motors did not disclose how large a price boost it had in mind.

The auto firms were cheered by Nixon administration suggestions for repeal of the 7 per cent federal excise tax on new cars. Auto executives generally were pleased with the 10 per cent duty surcharge Nixon ordered for most imports, including autos.

Q. What about school teachers who have signed pay contracts to take effect with the opening of school in September?

A. The official answer, at this moment, is that the pay increase must be postponed. But a Treasury statement is reported in the works and may modify or clarify the government's position.

Q. Will Nixon's proposed repeal of the 7-per-cent excise tax bring a rollback in the price of new cars?

A. Yes, but only when Congress actually enacts the repeal legislation. Nixon said he will insist that the excise saving, averaging about $200 per car, be passed on to consumers.

Q. If a scheduled wage increase is deferred because of the freeze, can the workers get the increase retroactively when the freeze ends?

A. No ruling has been made. There is no language in the President's order or White House explanatory statements providing for retroactive payment.

Q. Oregon has a cigarette tax scheduled to take effect Sept. 9. This would raise the price of cigarettes. Is such a tax increase blocked by the freeze?

A. The presidential order does not mention tax increases, and some officials doubt that a federal order could legally interfere with a state tax action.

Q. What about the 1972 model auto prices, announced by most of the companies but not yet in effect?

A. Unless the increased prices were in effect on Aug. 14 they must wait until the freeze ends.

Q. What happens when the 90-day freeze expires?

A. Secretary Connally says: "I don't know." The followup procedure is to be worked out by the new cabinet-level Cost of Living Council. Nixon has directed its members to work with industry and labor leaders "to set up a proper mechanism for achieving continued price and wage stability."

Q. Does that mean some kind of wage-price guidelines, or a wage-price review board, or what?

A. Officials so far have not even given any hints.

Plan Protest At San Diego

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman says he and other activists are making plans for protests in San Diego next summer at the Republican National Convention.

Hoffman was at a news conference Monday where three leaders of the May Day demonstrations in Washington burned what they said were subpoenas ordering them to appear before a federal grand jury in Detroit probing the bombing of the U. S. Capitol.

The three said they would refuse to answer all questions. "We dug the Capitol bombing but we didn't do it," said Ken Kelley, 20, of Detroit.

He said the three also refused to answer the same grand jury's questions last June.

Kelley was joined by Terry Taube, 18, also of Detroit, and Michael Tola, 21, Chapel Hill, N. C.

They accused the grand jury of being a part of a federal government conspiracy to block antiwar protests.

"Thousands of us will be in San Diego at the Republican National Convention," Tola said, reading from a joint statement.

"Everywhere Dick Nixon appears on the campaign trail, he'll be faced with thousands of angry, young people."

Daybook of America 1771...1871...1971

By CLARK KINNAIRD

No. 98 With the death of Frederick Calvert, 6th Baron Baltimore, in 1771, the title became extinct. Having no legitimate son, he devised proprietorship of the 137-year-old Maryland colony to his natural son, Henry Harford. Henry, born in Ireland to Hester Wheland, was then a nine-year-old school pupil. Before he was old enough to enjoy the bequest, Maryland was in rebellion and the Calvert estates were seized. Harford had to come to Maryland after the War of Independence, as a petitioner of the free government for some compensation for his property rights. After a long time he was awarded some $90,000—minus, naturally, substantial exactions by his lawyers. Meanwhile, he made himself at home. He was chosen provincial grandmaster of Masons. Besides the money from Maryland legislature, Harford was to have the satisfaction of a Maryland county bearing his name (as do several other Maryland counties of legitimate Calverts, including Anne Arundel, wife of the second Lord Baltimore).

If Harford had succeeded to the governorship, he would not have been the first in the colonies to be of illegitimate birth. William Franklin, royal governor of New Jersey, 1762-1776, was born out of wedlock.

NOTE: The original Calvert proprietorship in America was "Avalon," with a seat of government called "Perryland," in Newfoundland. The first Baron Baltimore visited it between 1627-1629, found the climate rigorously discouraging to colonists, and persuaded the monarch to make him a new grant in the area already claimed by Virginia settlers.

Cecil Calvert, 2nd Baron Baltimore, and his son, the future 3rd Baron Baltimore, each with hand on map of proprietary colony the father founded. Original painting by Gerard Soest, reproduced in J. A. Hammerton's Concise Universal Biography. The original is at Enoch Pratt Free Public Library, Baltimore, where full-color prints can be purchased.

Horoscope Forecast

THURSDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are likely to be too demanding in trying to put your good ideas across. However, a lot of energy is now released and if you act with more consideration than is expected you can gain the confidence of others. Then you will be in the mood to move forward and do the things you had planned.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to April 19) A day to see as many friends and relations as you can and talk over future plans. Try not to act in a forceful way with others. Use diplomacy with all for best results. Show that you are wise.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Choose your words wisely when speaking with higher-ups. Forget being so blunt and you get along much better. You have been losing too many friends that way. Show more consideration to others.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Use that good mind for a new approach at existing affairs which could make them more successful. Please others more. Study new data given you and know how to use it wisely.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Make sure you keep promises to the letter and you improve existing conditions. You must make those changes where mate is concerned. Don't try to renege now or you get into trouble.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Your associate is irate, so use soft tones and show that you are loyal and all will be fine again. Reconciling with others is also important. Then relax tonight with good friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan a schedule of work that must be done. Nothing is worse than having nothing to do. Plan a way to increase benefits. Don't turn away a friend who needs your help now more than ever.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you will listen to what a new acquaintance has to say, you will profit immensely by it. A business ally does not care for your ideas, but they are good nonetheless.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you use a different approach, you can handle those problematical affairs at home. Listen to what higher-up expects of you so that you do not make any errors. Catch up on reading tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You have good ideas that require more study before you can put them in operation successfully. Taking particular care in travel is vital now. Don't accept forceful views of an out-of-towner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Handling business affairs with care now makes the future easier, otherwise you can get into much trouble. Don't jump into a new project you know little about. Obtain advice from monetary expert.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Don't get so emotional about a situation that you get into a locked-horns situation with associate. Use reason instead of temper. Smile more and clear up anything of a controversial nature.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) If you start on that mountain of work ahead of you instead of tossing your head dejectedly, you'll be surprised how much you can accomplish. All you need is a more positive attitude.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those energetic young people who has real charm but must be taught to use a more diplomatic approach toward others if the fine promise here is to be realized. Otherwise your progeny could possibly go through life and incur the enmity instead of the admiration of others. Send to the right school where ethics is taught. Religious training is important.

Auto Makers Slash Prices

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. auto industry appeared in better shape to battle with import cars in the wake of decisions by General Motors and Ford to roll back their 1972 prices.

Chrysler and American Motors were expected to follow the lead of the nation's two largest auto companies, which called off proposed, sizable price boosts Monday in line with President Nixon's wage-price freeze.

Ford was the first to shelve hikes on the 1972 models just coming to dealer showrooms. It cancelled—at least for the 90 days of President Nixon's temporary controls program—a proposed increase averaging $200 or 5.2 per cent.

GM did likewise three hours later, saying its cars would be marketed at 1971 prices for the Nixon 90-day program.

GM, largest of the automakers, had proposed increases which it said averaged out to $166 or 4.5 per cent.

Chrysler had posted increases similar to those at Ford while American Motors did not disclose how large a price boost it had in mind.

The auto firms were cheered by Nixon administration suggestions for repeal of the 7 per cent federal excise tax on new cars. Auto executives generally were pleased with the 10 per cent duty surcharge Nixon ordered for most imports, including autos.

Mrs. Fairy Alkire Receives Award From Salem WSCS

RECOGNIZED — Mrs. Fairy Alkire was honored for her years of service to Salem United Methodist Church at a recent meeting of WSCS. Mrs. Alkire was presented a plaque and a corsage. The cake, later served with other refreshments, was decorated with pink roses and centered with her name.

Women's Society of Christian Service of Salem United Methodist Church at Meade honored Mrs. Fairy Alkire at its recent meeting at the church. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Boldoser Sr. and Mrs. Charles Boldoser Jr.

Mrs. Darl McAfee, out-going WSCS vice president, presented a plaque and corsage to Mrs. Alkire in recognition of her leadership in the church. She has served a total of 17 years as WSCS president, taught Sunday School, was a trustee, assisted in other church work and helped organize the first Fish Fry in 1949 which has become an annual event.

Mrs. Ira Barr installed the new officers for the coming year. They are Mrs. Donald Minor, president; Mrs. Gene Kerns, 1st vice president; Mrs. Delbert Poling, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Jacob Maxwell, secretary; Mrs. Ralph Ankrom, assistant secretary; Miss Betty Boldoser, treasurer; Mrs. Dick Hildenbrand, assistant treasurer.

For devotions Mrs. McAfee read "God Works In Unexpected Ways." Members sang "What A Friend" followed by a responsive reading "Brotherly Kindness." Mrs. Helen Knece read "Gift Of Time" and Mrs. Donald Minor read "This Month I Am 100." Mrs. Delbert Poling sang "Put Your Hand In the Hand Of The Man" and Mrs. Donald Hildenbrand presented prayer.

Mrs. Alkire presided at the business meeting. It was announced that there would be a rummage sale Sept. 18th at the K of C building. Mrs. Alkire closed the meeting by reading "He Pointed His Finger At Me." Games were conducted during the social hour.

Present were 21 members and nine guests, Mrs. Donald

Galbraith Urges Continued Restraint On Wages, Prices

TOWNSHEND, Vt. (AP) — Harvard economist John Kenneth Galbraith says a continuing restraint on wages and prices is an absolute necessity for a long-term success in the country's fight for a stable economy.

"As long as one has strong unions and strong corporations, one is going to have competition between the unions and corporations that can shove up the prices. So, there is going to be a continuing need for some kind of wage-price restraint," he said.

"Those who think otherwise are fooling themselves," Galbraith said in an interview Tuesday with The Associated Press.

Ambassador to India during the Kennedy administration and head of the Wage-Price Control Board during the early years of World War II, Galbraith made the comments at his summer farm in Southern Vermont.

He said President Nixon's decision announced Sunday to freeze prices and wages for 90 days was not a major reversal of the country's economic policies as a whole. He characterized it as "a major reversal as far as the Nixon administration is concerned," viewed in the light of its public statements over the past 2 1/2 years.

He said the United States has been edging toward some form of wage-price controls for 15 years. "We've been approaching the whole subject of wage and price control somewhat the same fashion that a conservative clergyman approaches an erotic statue. He knows he must look at it, but he doesn't want anyone to see him do it."

Galbraith called the wage-price freeze a step forward—"a recognition that fiscal policy and monetary policy can't carry the whole burden of inflation control, and that one has to supplement them with wage and price control."

However, he said, the so-called job expansion part of the Nixon economic message is a step backward.

"It involves, in the main, tax concessions for the well-to-do. The net of the income tax concessions, the repeal of the automobile excise tax and the tax credit for investment all affect middle and upper income spending," Galbraith said.

"At the same time, the President has offset this action by cutting back on federal jobs, suspending federal pay increases, postponing welfare reform, postponing revenue sharing—all things which can be guaranteed to put money into the economy."

"The 10 per cent excise tax levy is a step backward. There is a real danger this will reverse the long 25-year trend to lower tariffs, and set an example to other countries, when ever they are in trouble, to shove up their tariffs. As a very large trading nation ourselves, we have more to lose from setting this kind of example than we have to gain from it," Galbraith said.

He added, however, "there will be an expansive effect from the wage-price control, and no one should doubt that."

Looking to the period following the 90-day freeze on wages and prices, Galbraith said, "there will have to be some equalization between the unions that have just got their contracts and those that were about to negotiate. This is a simple matter of equity."

Australia Sets Troop Withdrawal

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Australia and New Zealand announced today that they will withdraw all of their combat troops from Vietnam, most of them by the end of the year.

Prime Minister William McMahon of Australia said most of his country's fighting men will be home by Christmas, and shipment of stores and equipment will be completed by early 1972.

In Wellington, Prime Minister Sir Keith Holyoake said New Zealand's small combat force will be withdrawn by "about the end of this year."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

It Matters Not Who Said It First

DEAR ABBY: Let's set the record straight. Someone asked you who said, "Nice guys finish last," and you replied, "Leo Durocher said it."

Durocher, wittingly, or unwittingly lifted this quote from the late Damon Runyon, and it's high time someone made that correction publicly. It is amazing how many news people attribute this quote to Durocher.

M.C. DEAR M.C.: I am unable to find proof that either Runyon or Durocher said it, but I would appreciate knowing. (Where are you, George Selles?) In any case, Damon Runyon may have said, "Nice guys finish last." FIRST, but Durocher said it LAST!

DEAR ABBY: Please don't laugh at me, but I am a grown woman and I am absolutely scared to death of mice!

Yesterday a little mouse ran out from under the stove to the refrigerator and I became hysterical, started to scream for help and jumped up on the kitchen table. My two children, ages 7 and 9 also became hysterical and my poor husband had a terrible time quieting us down.

I felt foolish frightening the children that way, but I couldn't help it. My husband was so mad at me he refused to set the trap. How can I overcome

Darbyville Church Slates Missionary

Miss Ruth Saxon, missionary to Trinidad, West Indies, will speak 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Darbyville Church of the Nazarene.

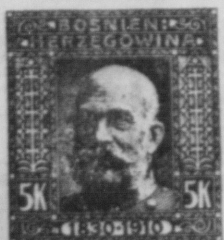

Missionary services will be a message in connection with slides. Miss Saxon will make her home in Mississippi during her furlough of a year.

Miss Saxon's work has been at the Nazarene Training College in Trinidad. Before becoming a missionary she was employed as a teacher at Hattiesburg, Miss.

Rome Boiling Over Dress Of Tourists

ROME (AP) — Italy is in a bind over tourist dress and undress. Not a few people have echoed the Vatican in deploring the display of skin, but in the end the outcry is not apt to have much effect.

The reason is that tourism is a $1½ billion industry, and Italy already has suffered from hotel strikes and reports of polluted beaches.

Some newspapers have joined the Vatican in defending St. Peter's Basilica against busloads of tourists in miniskirts or hot pants. They have also taken exception to tourists plunging into fountains for a midday dip or lounging on bedrolls in parks and piazzas.

Even the pro-Communist Rome daily Paese Sera said some tourists "exaggerated" in the kind of dress they wore to St. Peter's.

Compared with the baring of thighs or breasts in other continental tourists spots, the goings-on in Rome may appear mild. But there clearly is a conflict of cultures—the native one against those of visitors. Italian girls minis and hot pants are usually longer than those of the tourists.

Italian girl watchers are visibly shaken when an American girl walks by with a see-through T-shirt.

The Vatican has blamed a wave of rapes in Rome on such fashions as minis, hot pants, and see-through.

The newspaper L'Avvenire asserts: "Foreigners must learn that when abroad they cannot give vent to all their repressed instincts," it said.

Antoni Mosca, who sells soft drinks and ice cream cones atop the Spanish steps, commented: "Personally, I like to see women as nude as possible. But I think tourists should be more adequately dressed. I don't like to take my children for a walk and have them see men and women like that."

Will Set Standards On Emission Control

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Air Pollution Control Board will discuss proposed air emission standards at its meeting here Aug. 25 and is expected to schedule an October public hearing on the standards.

Statewide air quality standards already have been adopted, but to achieve them, emission control standards must be adopted and enforced. The state must have a pollution control program ready by next Jan. 30 or face federal takeover of pollution enforcement.

LONDON (AP) — Paul Findlay, head of the BBC television administration department, has been appointed administrative director of the London Festival Ballet. He takes up the post Sept. 1, succeeding Wilfred Stiff, who is joining a concert agency.

OHIO CASH GRAIN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Dept. of Agri. cash grain prices: No 2 red wheat 1.21-1.25, mostly 1.24 - 1.25; No 2 yellow corn mostly 1 higher 1.15-1.20, mostly 1.15 - 1.17; No 2 oats unchanged to 1 higher 59-70, mostly 59-62; Soybeans mostly 7-8 higher 3.14-3.25, mostly 3.17-3.25.

LOOK AT ALL THIS ARAB DISUNITY

ISRAEL LOOKS PRETTY SAFE when you add up all the disunity in the Arab world. There is more Arab disunity now than when they lost the Six-Day War. Diplomats feel there is no such thing as a united Arab front. And think of the soul-searching in Moscow, which is trying to woo the Arab world with arms and technicians while some of those nations are mercilessly crushing Communist movements, like in the Sudan.

Education Lobby Presses Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Education lobbyists put increased pressure on state lawmakers today amid indications that President Nixon's new economy moves might hamper chances of passage of a state income tax.

The Ohio Education Association invited teachers from all sections of the state to visit the Statehouse today to make contacts with their senators and urge speedy passage of what it called an "adequate education" bill and the income tax.

The state budget and tax bills currently are before Senate subcommittees.

In another move Tuesday, the OEA announced it would use every means at its disposal to see that teachers are paid salary increases and new scales adopted prior to President Nixon's wage and price freeze.

Stayner F. Brighton, OEA executive secretary, said such "increments and adopted salary schedules do not fall within the scope of the President's executive order."

Akron Woman Leads Prayer - School Fight

By THOMAS G. REES
Associated Press Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — What started out as an attempt by Mrs. Ben Ruhlin to show her son he could have faith in adults has turned into a 2½-year crusade to have prayer restored to public schools.

In that time, the Cuyahoga Falls housewife has worked on a discharge petition to get a public school prayer amendment out of the U.S. House Judiciary Committee. The amendment has been bottled up in committee by Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., who says he opposes the amendment on constitutional grounds.

Mrs. Ruhlin and some aides were able to get 197 signatures on the petition before Congress began a 30-day recess last month. And she believes the other 22 signatures needed to get the amendment out of committee will be obtained after Congress reconvenes next month.

It all began, Mrs. Ruhlin says, with a question from her son Benny, a 17-year-old high school senior who was then 14. "My youngest came home one day and asked, 'Why do we park God outside of school?'" she says. "I asked him why he thought we did and he said he had learned that the church and state say to do this."

Mrs. Ruhlin says she told her son she would see what she could do about it and he chided her, saying, "You'll probably be like all other grownups" and forget about it.

"He said that if they have prayer to open sessions of the U.S. Supreme Court, the Senate and Congress, then what do they mean by church and state separation?" she says. "This led me to think that we as grownups should do something and that's when I went to my congressman, Bill Ayres."

Ayres was defeated last year in Ohio's 14th Congressional District but Mrs. Ruhlin says she still goes to him when she needs help. To get her campaign going, Mrs. Ruhlin says she sold some stock at a loss, signed a note and took the proceeds from a small property sale to get about $5,000. Since then, she says, her "first lieutenant," Mrs. George Keck of the Akron suburb of Fairlawn, has contributed about $3,000 more.

Most of Mrs. Keck's money has gone to pay telephone bills, which now run about $500 a month, Mrs. Ruhlin says.

Mrs. Ruhlin, 45, has two other sons, Richard, 20, and John, 22, both students at Akron State University. She says it was John, a business administration major, who came up with the idea of a discharge petition.

"We are most confident that we will get it done because there are so many people so interested in this," she says. Mrs. Ruhlin, a member of Bethany United Church of Christ, says many organizations have worked with her organization, the National Prayer Group, in soliciting signatures from congressmen. Recently, she and 30 aides haunted the halls of Congress drumming up support for the amendment.

She says financial contributions from others aside from Mrs. Keck have totaled about $400.

Mrs. Ruhlin says much of her support has come from the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Parents for Prayer on the West Coast and Citizens for Public Reverence in Pittsburgh and New York.

"The latest poll by the Citizens for Public Reverence shows that 84 per cent of the people in the nation favor the amendment and a Gallup Poll shows 90 per cent in favor," she says.

"I am a firm believer in Jesus Christ," she says, "but I would not impose my views on others." She says she would favor a prayer to God, but would not necessarily advocate use of traditional forms of Christian prayer.

"I believe we need foundations," Mrs. Ruhlin says, "and without God at all it seems the educational system has nothing to work with. Everything has to start with a base."

"I feel that with all the drugs and the other things taking place now that perhaps we could balance it a little with prayer and it might do some good. It's a deadend street to go the atheist way. You have to start with something. A Godless society would be a deadend street. We must have rules to live by."

"We need more of God in order to get along with our neighbors and to get along with other countries," she says. "We've gotten so affluent we seem to think we can do everything by ourselves. You take God's love out of everything and it's meaningless."

"To leave God out, we would be regressing," she says. "We would be back to the animal stage instead of becoming more sophisticated."

APOLLO 16 astronauts are (from left) John W. Young, mission chief; Thomas K. Mattingly II, who was Command Module pilot for the Apollo 13 lunar landing; Charles M. Duke Jr. Apollo 16 is scheduled to be launched on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1972.

Says Bills Will Save State Money

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Ronald Mottl, D-24 Parma, expects that welfare measures he has proposed will save the state millions of dollars in Aid to Dependent Children program money.

Mottl introduced a bill Tuesday that would require ADC recipients to make monthly trips to county welfare offices to pick up their checks in person.

He is also sponsor of a bill to require able-bodied ADC and Work Relief program recipients to take government jobs or join work training programs.

Senate OKs
Mergers By Colleges

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill passed Monday night by the Ohio Senate would give state university branch campuses and technical institutes authority to merge into independent community colleges if the trustees of both institutions approve.

An amendment to the bill also grants the Ohio Board of Regents authority to take over planning and construction of branch campuses when money for them has been appropriated by the legislature but the parent university has failed to act within a year.

The merger bill, which passed 20-7, is a revised version of a proposal by the regents last year that would have made such moves mandatory when enrollment reached a certain level. The idea crumbled under heavy opposition.

The bill passed Monday now goes to the House.

Chief sponsor of the new measure, Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-29 Navarre, said, "We want to give them (branch campuses and technical institutes) the opportunity to mature into the kind of institutions that will best serve the needs of their communities."

Sen. Harry Meshel, D-33 Youngstown, said he had "very serious reservations about the bill" because it might result in many new branches located too close together.

The Senate Ways and Means subcommittee was to meet Monday to discuss a new income tax proposal to serve as a basis for Senate action on a tax measure. Due to a mixup the meeting did not materialize.

Sen. Michael J. Maloney, R7 Cincinnati, committee chairman, said he hoped to have an income tax measure out of the subcommittee by the end of the week.

The measure currently under consideration calls for a 1 to 3 per cent personal income tax and a 3 to 6 per cent tax on corporate income. It would raise about $970 million in new revenue.

Maloney said that if his subcommittee could not shape the bill into a measure that could pass the full committee or the Senate, it would likely start working on a sales tax bill.

It all began, Mrs. Ruhlin says, with a question from her son Benny, a 17-year-old high school senior who was then 14.

"My youngest came home one day and asked, 'Why do we park God outside of school?'" she says. "I asked him why he thought we did and he said he had learned that the church and state say to do this."

Mrs. Ruhlin says she told her son she would see what she could do about it and he chided her, saying, "You'll probably be like all other grownups" and forget about it.

"He said that if they have prayer to open sessions of the U.S. Supreme Court, the Senate and Congress, then what do they mean by church and state separation?" she says. "This led me to think that we as grownups should do something and that's when I went to my congressman, Bill Ayres."

Ayres was defeated last year in Ohio's 14th Congressional District but Mrs. Ruhlin says she still goes to him when she needs help.

To get her campaign going, Mrs. Ruhlin says she sold some stock at a loss, signed a note and took the proceeds from a small property sale to get about $5,000. Since then, she says, her "first lieutenant," Mrs. George Keck of the Akron suburb of Fairlawn, has contributed about $3,000 more.

Most of Mrs. Keck's money has gone to pay telephone bills, which now run about $500 a month, Mrs. Ruhlin says.

Mrs. Ruhlin, 45, has two other sons, Richard, 20, and John, 22, both students at Akron State University. She says it was John, a business administration major, who came up with the idea of a discharge petition.

"We are most confident that we will get it done because there are so many people so interested in this," she says.

Mrs. Ruhlin, a member of Bethany United Church of Christ, says many organizations have worked with her organization, the National Prayer Group, in soliciting signatures from congressmen. Recently, she and 30 aides haunted the halls of Congress drumming up support for the amendment.

She says financial contributions from others aside from Mrs. Keck have totaled about $400.

Mrs. Ruhlin says much of her support has come from the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Parents for Prayer on the West Coast and Citizens for Public Reverence in Pittsburgh and New York.

"The latest poll by the Citizens for Public Reverence shows that 84 per cent of the people in the nation favor the amendment and a Gallup Poll shows 90 per cent in favor," she says.

"I am a firm believer in Jesus

Christ," she says, "but I would not impose my views on others." She says she would favor a prayer to God, but would not necessarily advocate use of traditional forms of Christian prayer.

"I believe we need foundations," Mrs. Ruhlin says, "and without God at all it seems the educational system has nothing to work with. Everything has to start with a base."

"I feel that with all the drugs and the other things taking place now that perhaps we could balance it a little with prayer and it might do some good. It's a deadend street to go the atheist way. You have to start with something. A Godless society would be a deadend street. We must have rules to live by."

"We need more of God in order to get along with our neighbors and to get along with other countries," she says. "We've gotten so affluent we seem to think we can do everything by ourselves. You take God's love out of everything and it's meaningless."

"To leave God out, we would be regressing," she says. "We would be back to the animal stage instead of becoming more sophisticated."

Says Bills Will Save State Money

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Ronald Mottl, D-24 Parma, expects that welfare measures he has proposed will save the state millions of dollars in Aid to Dependent Children program money.

Mottl introduced a bill Tuesday that would require ADC recipients to make monthly trips to county welfare offices to pick up their checks in person.

He is also sponsor of a bill to require able-bodied ADC and Work Relief program recipients to take government jobs or join work training programs.

Senate OKs Mergers By Colleges

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill passed Monday night by the Ohio Senate would give state university branch campuses and technical institutes authority to merge into independent community colleges if the trustees of both institutions approve.

An amendment to the bill also grants the Ohio Board of Regents authority to take over planning and construction of branch campuses when money for them has been appropriated by the legislature but the parent university has failed to act within a year.

The merger bill, which passed 20-7, is a revised version of a proposal by the regents last year that would have made such moves mandatory when enrollment reached a certain level. The idea crumbled under heavy opposition.

The bill passed Monday now goes to the House.

Chief sponsor of the new measure, Sen. Ralph S. Regula, R-29 Navarre, said, "We want to give them (branch campuses and technical institutes) the opportunity to mature into the kind of institutions that will best serve the needs of their communities."

Sen. Harry Meshel, D-33 Youngstown, said he had "very serious reservations about the bill" because it might result in many new branches located too close together.

The Senate Ways and Means subcommittee was to meet Monday to discuss a new income tax proposal to serve as a basis for Senate action on a tax measure. Due to a mixup the meeting did not materialize.

Sen. Michael J. Maloney, R-7 Cincinnati, committee chairman, said he hoped to have an income tax measure out of the subcommittee by the end of the week.

The measure currently under consideration calls for a 1 to 3 per cent personal income tax and a 3 to 6 per cent tax on corporation income. It would raise about $970 million in new revenue.

Maloney said that if his subcommittee could not shape the bill into a measure that could pass the full committee or the Senate, it would likely start working on a sales tax bill.

Clear Skies Cover Nation

Nixon Calls Leaders Of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon Tuesday summoned key congressional figures to sell them on the tax-cut portion of his new economic policy—a policy that already has disgruntled some labor leaders and given the stock market its best day ever.

Among those asked to the White House was Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee, who Monday called the President's new economic program "absolutely necessary" and scheduled crash hearings on it for Sept. 8, the day Congress returns from vacation.

Monday brought a worldwide whirlwind of reaction to Nixon's announcement Sunday that he would cut the dollar loose from gold, order a 90-day wage-price freeze, increase tariffs, reduce federal spending and ask Congress to cut taxes for auto buyers, businessmen buying new equipment and, starting next year, the average taxpayer.

—The New York Stock Exchange rocketed to a record single-day gain of 32.93 points in the Dow-Jones industrial average. Foreign stock markets suffered.
—AFL-CIO President George

Meany said the new Nixon plan favors business and is "patently discriminatory as far as American workers are concerned." Other labor leaders were generally cool.

—Consumerist Ralph Nader called Nixon's package "a mixture of successful special-interest pleading and anticonsumer policies."

—Foreign industrialists that sell in the United States expressed displeasure, with some calling for retaliation against U.S. goods.

—Importers and foreign embassy officials besieged the Treasury Department with inquiries about specific applications of the new trade policy.

—Money exchanges in Europe, Africa and Latin America closed. American tourists took a beating exchanging their dollars for local money in informal transactions in hotel lobbies. But the administration said it remains to be seen whether the floating dollar will amount to a devalued dollar.

—Reaction from Congress continued generally favorable although some Democrats said the wage-price freeze won't work. Chairman Wright Patman of the House Banking and Currency Committee said the freeze should include control of interest rates. Treasury Secretary John B. Connally said such controls might prompt lenders to hoard their money, and he called on them to furnish "reasonable" interest rates voluntarily.

Connally said the administration expects to make exceptions for the wage freeze only in event of "catastrophic" hardship.

He said a severe balance-of-payments deficit, on top of a sluggish economy and unsatisfactory unemployment and inflation, prompted Nixon's new policy.

Hours later, the government announced the deficit climbed to its worst level ever for April, May and June, reflecting an outflow of dollars seeking higher interest rates abroad and America's first deficit in merchandise trade in years.

In another bit of gloomy economy news, the Commerce Department said output of the nation's factories slipped 0.8 per cent in July, worst since the 1.1-per-cent drop during last November's General Motors strike.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

A Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The "Cade's County" company was a half day behind its shooting schedule. As a result, the big sound stage looked like a disturbed ant hill as the production crew, from director to assistant electricians, scurried around trying to make up the lost time.

Glenn Ford, who will make his television series debut next month, was in the center of the action rehearsing a short scene. He plays a Jeep-riding sheriff in the Southwest and the episode in the works involved the killing of a beauty contest winner.

Almost leisurely, he walked away from the hectic scene. In his dressing room, he sprawled comfortably on a sofa and remarked: "I think we'll make up the time. They are working frantically, but I can't let it get to me. Somehow I manage to pull a curtain around myself and I really don't hear the activity. Once in a while it starts to get to me and then I tell everyone to cool it."

Ford, one of the big box-office film stars, chose to enter television—mostly made in Hollywood—at a time when most motion pictures are being turned out in locations all over the world. He loves his home and wants to live in it, as simple as that.

Ford was scheduled to play a policeman supervising a halfway house for children in trouble.

"I signed for that half-hour series," he said. "Then somebody put a string of my films together on television and the people at CBS saw them. Somebody—either Bob Wood, the president, or Fred Silverman, the program head—said, 'Wow, he'd be just right for that Western property we've been holding for a year.'"

What Ford did not say was that the shift came when all television suddenly cooled on relevancy and social conscience as a number of well-intentioned programs wound up third in the three-network ratings race.

PUCO Approves Phone Rate Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — General Telephone Co. has received approval from the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio for a $4.7 million rate increase.

But the commission said Tuesday the increase may not be put into effect until after President Nixon's wage-price freeze is lifted.

General Telephone, which serves 281,000 customers in more than 200 Ohio communities, originally sought a $9 million rate hike in an application filed in April 1970.

But some 24 municipalities served by the company objected to the increase, and a compromise agreement was worked out which cut the increase to $6.1 million.

Pickaway Grange Report

POMONA GRANGE
Nebraska Grange served as host for the Summer meeting of Pomona Grange held Aug. 13 at the 4-H and Grange Building. For the ritualistic and business portion of the session the Master Dorsey Bumgarner presided and Leona Burger served as pianist.

Joan Dawson gave a report of the recent conference for deputies at which plans were established for continued promotion of grange functions. She announced that (1) the guiding theme for 1971-72 was "The Stepping Stones to Success in a Grange Pathway", (2) Ernest Bidwell had been selected as the representative delegate for Pickaway County, (3) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lands were now serving as leaders for the youth organization, (4) Sept. 11 and 12 was the date for the annual State Lecturer's Conference at Brookhaven, (5) Sept. 12 was the date for the local Prince and Princess pageant, and (6) Sept. 24, 25, 26 was the time scheduled for the Great Lakes Lecturers Conference to be held in Columbus.

Special commendation was given for the six booth exhibits at County Fair with recognition to Star Grange for first place rating.

John Dowler expressed appreciation for the cooperative efforts of all granges at the Food Service Center and announced that profits would be shared equally.

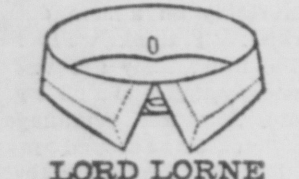

GOOD OLD KEEPSAKES

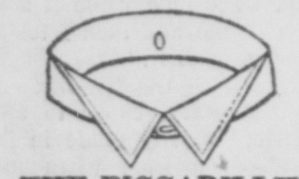

IN so-called "good old days" many men changed collars oftener than shirts. Collars were commonly detachable. Styles were changed often. Visit to the U.S. in 1871 of a Russian prince inspired a new one. Marriage that year of Marquis of Lorne to a daughter of Queen Victoria, brought forth another of the three pictured below hawked opportunely by a New York manufacturer.

RUSSIAN PRINCE

LORD LORNE

THE PICCADILLY

Any are rare now. Rarest and therefore prizes to collectors of old-time haberdashery, are paper & muslin disposable collars patented, by Walter Hunt in 1854; and Celluloid collars among the first successful commercial applications of a pioneer plastic synthetic the Hyatt brothers patented in 1869.

Examples of either may be found in grandfather trunks in attics.

Disability Benefits Bill Reaches Floor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill to increase workmen's compensation benefits for the disabled and injured was reported out of the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee Tuesday with a recommendation for passage.

The bill, which had earlier passed the House, provides for maximum increases of up to 33 per cent. It will cost the state an additional $24 million.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION
Public Notice is hereby given that Lake Shore Systems, Inc. has filed with The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an Application to Amend Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 109 Bus by abandoning part of the operating authority as follows:

Between Columbus and Chillicothe, Ohio.
From Circleville via S. H. 56 to intersection with Circleville-Kingston Road (County Road 9); thence via County Road 9 to intersection with S. R. 361; thence via S. R. 361 to S. R. 159; thence via S. R. 159 through Kingston and Kinnikinnick to intersection with U.S. 23. Return via reverse route.

From intersection U.S. 23 and Thatcher Road via Thatcher Road to intersection with Circleville-Kingston Road (County Road 9). Return via reverse route.

All interested parties may obtain further information by addressing The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, 111 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. Aug. 4, 11, 18

A continued discussion of the use of accumulated Pomona Grange Funds resulted in the decision to give contributions to State Grange Camp, Christian Voice of Central Ohio, and Outreach for Youth with headquarters in Columbus, and to use the remaining funds for worthy projects in Pickaway County. The committee for management of this will be Mr. Dowler and the Master of each subordinate grange.

Resolutions of respect were read by Joseph Peters for Mae Payne who was a member of Scioto Valley Grange, and Dolly Sark and Fred Hedges who were members of Nebraska Grange. Assisting Mr. Peters with the resolutions were Mabel Fisher and Orley Judy.

Penni Nielsen, County Extension Agent for Home Economics, was the judge for the annual county wide contest of baking and sewing. Entries winning first place were: Pillow Cases, Mary Little; Cape, Donna Beougher; Chocolate Date Cake, Alvena Judy; Pumpkin Bread, Dawn Bidwell.

For the program as arranged by the lecturer Leora Sayre, Teen and Adult Talent was shared by each grange. For Mt. Pleasant, Beatrice Bumgarner announced they had borrowed teen talent from Brooks-Yates School. Alfred Heeter gave impersonations of radio commercials and news broadcasts and a speech on safety. Mae Johnson demonstrated a variety of exercises to develop and maintain physical fitness.

From Saltcreek, Hoyt Timmons read a Farmer's Love Letter. The adult presentation from Scioto Valley Grange was a harmonica solo by Harold Bumgarner. Then for youth piano solos were played by David Richard and Johnny Schiappacasse.

Scioto's presentation was two very comic skits by Kenneth and Doris Beach and John Cooper — "Peanut Butter" and "Where's The Fire?" Laura Long from Star Grange gave a reading about Grandmas Garden.

For Washington Grange Barbara Bolender played a piano solo and with Ethel Rinehart and Weta Leist accompanying, Myra Rinehart and Karen Ewing presented vocal solos.

Mrs. Dawson, Pomona's Chairman of Women's Activities explained the "Bells of Friendship" project. There were many responses to her request to name different kinds of bells. She introduced the bells contributed by each subordinate lecturer and, aided by Mrs. Sayre, gave a cooperative sounding of the bells which will be a part of the State Grange program. The concluding related highlight was "The Bells of St. Mary's" — a piano solo by Patricia Schleich.

Guest speaker was James Shea from WNRE Radio Station. Shea elaborated on policies by this local news media which helps keep people interested and informed and whets appetites for reading related details in the newspaper. Many vocal bells of friendship were exercised during the concluding social interlude during which refreshments were served by members of Nebraska Grange directed by Chestora Peters, chairman of Women's Activities. For Saltcreek Grange, Hoyt Timmons extended an invitation to the fall meeting in November.

Pickaway Grange Report

POMONA GRANGE
Nebraska Grange served as host for the Summer meeting of Pomona Grange held Aug. 13 at the 4-H and Grange Building. For the ritualistic and business portion of the session the Master Dorsey Bumgarner presided and Leona Berger served as pianist.

Joan Dawson gave a report of the recent conference for deputies at which plans were established for continued promotion of grange functions. She announced that (1) the guiding theme for 1971-72 was "The Stepping Stones to Success in a Grange Pathway", (2) Ernest Bidwell had been selected as the representative delegate for Pickaway County, (3) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lands were now serving as leaders for the youth organization, (4) Sept. 11 and 12 was the date for the annual State Lecturer's Conference at Brookhaven, (5) Sept. 12 was the date for the local Prince and Princess pageant, and (6) Sept. 24, 25, 26 was the time scheduled for the Great Lakes Lecturers Conference to be held in Columbus.

Special commendation was given for the six booth exhibits at County Fair with recognition to Star Grange for first place rating. John Dowler expressed appreciation for the cooperative efforts of all granges at the Food Service Center and announced that profits would be shared equally.

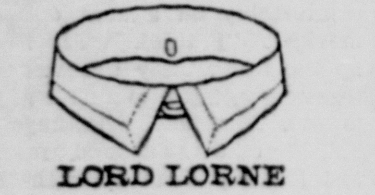

GOOD OLD KEEPSAKES

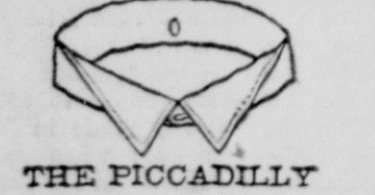

IN so-called "good old days" many men changed collars oftener than shirts. Collars were commonly detachable. Styles were changed often. Visit to the U.S. in 1871 of a Russian prince inspired a new one. Marriage that year of Marquis of Lorne to a daughter of Queen Victoria, brought forth another of the three pictured below hawked opportunely by a New York manufacturer.

RUSSIAN PRINCE

LORD LORNE

THE PICCADILLY

Any are rare now. Rarest and therefore prizes to collectors of old-time haberdashery, are paper & muslin disposable collars patented by Walter Hunt in 1854; and Celluloid collars among the first successful commercial applications of a pioneer plastic synthetic the Hyatt brothers patented in 1869.

Examples of either may be found in grandfather trunks in attics.

Disability Benefits Bill Reaches Floor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill to increase workmen's compensation benefits for the disabled and injured was reported out of the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee Tuesday with a recommendation for passage.

The bill, which had earlier passed the House, provides for maximum increases of up to 33 per cent. It will cost the state an additional $24 million.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION
Public Notice is hereby given that Lake Shore Systems, Inc. has filed with The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an Application to Amend Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 109 But by abandoning part of the operating authority as follows:

projects in Pickaway County. The committee for management of this will be Mr. Dowler and the Master of each subordinate grange.

Resolutions of respect were read by Joseph Peters for Mae Payne who was a member of Scioto Valley Grange, and Dolly Sark and Fred Hedges who were members of Nebraska Grange. Assisting Mr. Peters with the resolutions were Mabel Fisher and Orley Judy.

Pennl Nielsen, County Extension Agent for Home Economics, was the judge for the annual county wide contest of baking and sewing. Entries winning first place were: Pillow Cases, Mary Little; Cape, Donna Beougher; Chocolate Date Cake, Alvina Judy; Pumpkin Bread, Dawn Bidwell.

For the program as arranged by the lecturer Leora Sayre. Teen and Adult Talent was shared by each grange. For Mt. Pleasant, Beatrice Bumgarner announced they had borrowed teen talent from Brooks-Yates School. Alfred Heeter gave impersonations of radio commercials and news broadcasts and a speech on safety. Mae Johnson demonstrated a variety of exercises to develop and maintain physical fitness.

From Saltcreek, Hoyt Timmons read a Farmer's Love Letter. The adult presentation from Scioto Valley Grange was a harmonica solo by Harold Bumgarner. Then for youth piano solos were played by David Richard and Johnny Schiappacasse.

Scioto's presentation was two very comic skits by Kenneth and Doris Beach and John Cooper — "Peanut Butter" and "Where's The Fire?" Laura Long from Star Grange gave a reading about Grandmas Garden.

For Washington Grange Barbara Bolender played a piano solo and with Ethel Rinehart and Weta Leist accompanying, Myra Rinehart and Karen Ewing presented vocal solos.

Mrs. Dawson, Pomona's Chairman of Women's Activities explained the "Bells of Friendship" project. There were many responses to her request to name different kinds of bells. Armco Pay Hikes Won't Be Frozen

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Wage hikes recently won by national and independent unions at all eight Armco Steel Corp. plants will be given to the employees, the company says.

"It was the company's opinion that the steel industry wage and salary increases were exempted by President Nixon's order and that the employees to whom such increases applied would receive the Aug. 1, 1971, changes in wages and benefits," S. C. Huselton, vice president of personnel and public relations, said Tuesday.

The President's announcement on the freezing of prices and wages came Sunday night.

The last of Armco's wage settlements was reached Saturday night. The settlement involved all 7,000 workers at the Middletown area plants, plus workers at other Armco plants in Ohio. The workers are members of independent unions.

Springs in Vermont and Arkansas have been used for bottled water for more than a century.

Armco Pay Hikes Won't Be Frozen

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Wage hikes recently won by national and independent unions at all eight Armco Steel Corp. plants will be given to the employees, the company says. "It was the company's opinion that the steel industry wage and salary increases were exempted by President Nixon's order and that the employees to whom such increases applied would receive the Aug. 1, 1971, changes in wages and benefits," S. C. Huselton, vice president of personnel and public relations, said Tuesday. The President's announcement on the freezing of prices and wages came Sunday night. The last of Armco's wage settlements was reached Saturday night. The settlement involved all 7,000 workers at the Middletown area plants, plus workers at other Armco plants in Ohio. The workers are members of independent unions.

Springs in Vermont and Arkansas have been used for bottled water for more than a century.

Lady Medic In Rescue Unit

LORING AIR FORCE BASE, Maine (AP)—The injured airman on the ground watches as an Air Force rescue helicopter hovers overhead. A medic is lowered on the hoist cable from the quivering chopper. Then he sees that the crewman coming to his rescue is a woman.

And so he meets Marilyn Pierce of West Covina, Calif., the first and only woman flight crew member of an air rescue team in the Air Force.

In crash and emergency situations not involving fire and in which her chopper cannot land, Airman 1.C. Pierce is the first out the chopper door.

Lowered to earth on the hoist cable, she must decide what the situation calls for and whether medical attention is needed.

Women's lib? "I'm not a part of that group," says Marilyn. "I just feel I'm doing something for the first time. I just happened to be there when they asked for volunteers."

In civilian life Marilyn found she couldn't get a secretarial job without experience, so she joined the Air Force.

There she got into the medical field and was working the flight surgeon's office when the helicopter rescue and recovery detachment was being formed.

Nothing in regulations said a woman couldn't be on an air

Kentucky Purchases Mary Lincoln Home

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—The state has bought the Mary Todd Lincoln Home in nearby Lexington for $12,000.

It will be dismantled brick by brick, with each brick numbered, then moved to Waveland, a state museum near Lexington, for reconstruction.

rescue flight crew. It just hadn't been done before.

Squadron headquarters at Elgin AFB, Fla., sent word it was all right to give Marilyn a chance, providing the detachment commander approved.

Marilyn learned how to perform her job on the helicopter from April to June with no concessions granted her sex.

So far all her missions have been practice but Marilyn is looking forward to the first real challenge. "I'm eager to go," she says. "For once I'll feel like I'm really needed and doing something for somebody." However, she says "I think I'll be scared."

"It takes guts to work under a 5,000-7,000-pound helicopter hovering over you six feet off the ground," she says. "It's easy for a gust of wind to come along and for you to get hit by a wheel. I don't know if a lot of girls would have the guts."

Saltcreek Native On European Tour

Clyde Beougher, a Saltcreek Twp. native, is participating in a goodwill People to People travel program to Europe.

Beougher was chosen by Wilbur Wood, a professor at Ohio State University who organized the 23-person tour to improve communication and relations between the citizens of the countries involved.

A former vocational agriculture instructor at Delaware Hayes High School, Beougher is a graduate of Saltcreek High School. His wife is the former Glada Dresbach.

Since retiring from teaching, Beougher has been associated with the Delaware County bank.

The tour, which included stops in Spain, Switzerland, Moscow, Czechoslovakia, East and West Berlin, Holland and Brussels returned today to the United States.

List Bus Routes For City Schools

Bus routes to serve students who will be attending Circleville City Schools were announced today by Superintendent Fritz F. Jacobs for the 1971-72 school year which opens Aug. 31.

Students eligible for bus transportation must live more than one mile from the elementary school or more than one-half mile from the high school or junior high.

Buses will run on regular schedule the first day, which will be a full day of school. Classes will take up at 8:17 a.m. and dismiss at 3:25 p.m. at the high school; from 8:15 a.m. to 3:20 p.m. at the Junior High and from 8:45 a.m. to 2:50 p.m. at all elementary schools.

If students are unsure of eligibility for transportation they may contact Virgil Cress at 474-5090 until Aug. 27.

With the exception of a few slight changes, all buses will run on a similar schedule to last years route, except that some numbers have been changed.

One new regular driver has been employed, Stephan Confare replaces Thomas Kyle.

BUS NO. 1
Mrs. Kenneth Garrison, Driver
Trip No. 1 — Junior and Senior High Students

Starts at 7 a.m. on the Westfall - Frankfort Road, goes north to Westfall - Kinderhook Road, west on Westfall-Kinderhook Road to Muller residence then back on Westfall

Not Guilty Plea Entered By Ellsberg

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Daniel Ellsberg has pleaded innocent to charges of illegally having the Pentagon papers, and a former colleague is in jail for refusing to testify about the disclosure of the secret documents.

Ellsberg told newsmen outside court Monday that he believes he will be acquitted in a fair trial. He said he anticipates a long trial "very instructional to the country," dealing with "life and death, war and peace."

The 40-year-old research associate at Massachusetts Institute of Technology remains free on $50,000 bail and said he plans to return to Boston. He is due back in U.S. District Court here Jan. 4 for a hearing on a trial date and pretrial motions.

About 2½ hours after saying "I am not guilty" in a firm voice to Judge Matt Byrne, Ellsberg stood outside the courthouse with Anthony Russo, a former colleague from the Rand Corp., a research firm in nearby Santa Monica.

Russo was ordered to surrender after U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas declined to bar his jailing for contempt of court.

Russo, 34, was working at Rand Corp. in 1969 when the government says, Ellsberg had access there to the secret documents on American involvement in Vietnam.

Although given immunity from prosecution, Russo refused to testify before the federal grand jury that indicted Ellsberg in June on charges of unauthorized possession of secret documents and using them for his own purposes.

Before surrendering to federal marshals, Russo told newsmen, "I'm proud to stand with Daniel Ellsberg in taking responsibility for making the Pentagon papers available to the American people." He didn't elaborate.

Russo could remain in jail until he agrees to testify or until the grand jury's term expires in about 18 months.

Auto Buyers Won't Lose Tax Reduction

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — People buying new cars now will not lose a proposed 7 per cent reduction in automobile excise taxes, according to the Ohio Auto Dealers Association.

The association said Tuesday auto dealers around the state are telling their customers that any excise tax repeal approved by Congress will be retroactive to Aug. 15, the day President Nixon announced his new economic program.

A glue called lignin binds wood fibers together and is impervious to water and extreme heat or cold.

Hearings Slated In Kidnap Case

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A U.S. District Court hearing will be scheduled here for two Columbus, Ohio, men accused of kidnapping an Ohio State University student.

Ronald Lee Stoltz, 19, and Ronald Gary Jackson, 26, described by police as having no permanent addresses, were being held in lieu of $20,000 bond each.

The student, Jerry L. Conner, 21, of Columbus, was freed Sunday after alerting authorities to his four days of captivity with a distress note thrown into a motel cleaning cart.

Connor told police the pair jumped him in Columbus Aug. 10 and ordered him to drive to Canada via Chicago, Milwaukee and then Madison.

List Bus Routes For City Schools

Bus routes to serve students who will be attending Circleville City Schools were announced today by Superintendent Fritz F. Jacobs for the 1971-72 school year which opens Aug. 31.

Students eligible for bus transportation must live more than one mile from the elementary school or more than one-half mile from the high school or junior high.

Buses will run on regular schedule the first day, which will be a full day of school. Classes will take up at 8:17 a.m. and dismiss at 3:25 p.m. at the high school; from 8:15 a.m. to 3:20 p.m. at the Junior High and from 8:45 a.m. to 2:50 p.m. at all elementary schools.

If students are unsure of eligibility for transportation they may contact Virgil Cress at 474-5090 until Aug. 27.

With the exception of a few slight changes, all buses will run on a similar schedule to last years route, except that some numbers have been changed.

One new regular driver has been employed, Stephan Confare replaces Thomas Kyle.

Not Guilty Plea Entered By Ellsberg

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Daniel Ellsberg has pleaded innocent to charges of illegally having the Pentagon papers, and a former colleague is in jail for refusing to testify about the disclosure of the secret documents.

Ellsberg told newsmen outside court Monday that he believes he will be acquitted in a fair trial. He said he anticipates a long trial "very instructional to the country," dealing with "life and death, war and peace."

The 40-year-old research associate at Massachusetts Institute of Technology remains free on $50,000 bail and said he plans to return to Boston. He is due back in U.S. District Court here Jan. 4 for a hearing on a trial date and pretrial motions.

About 2½ hours after saying "I am not guilty" in a firm voice to Judge Matt Byrne, Ellsberg stood outside the courthouse with Anthony Russo, a former colleague from the Rand Corp., a research firm in nearby Santa Monica.

Russo was ordered to surrender after U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas declined to bar his jailing for contempt of court.

Russo, 34, was working at Rand Corp. in 1969 when the government says, Ellsberg had access there to the secret documents on American involvement in Vietnam.

Although given immunity from prosecution, Russo refused to testify before the federal grand jury that indicted Ellsberg in June on charges of unauthorized possession of secret documents and using them for his own purposes.

Before surrendering to federal marshals, Russo told newsmen, "I'm proud to stand with Daniel Ellsberg in taking responsibility for making the Pentagon papers available to the American people." He didn't elaborate.

Russo could remain in jail until he agrees to testify or until the grand jury's term expires in about 18 months.

Auto Buyers Won't Lose Tax Reduction

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — People buying new cars now will not lose a proposed 7 per cent reduction in automobile excise taxes, according to the Ohio Auto Dealers Association.

The association said Tuesday auto dealers around the state are telling their customers that any excise tax repeal approved by Congress will be retroactive to Aug. 15, the day President Nixon announced his new economic program.

Bench's Homer Yields Victory For Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Johnny Bench finally silenced the boo birds at Riverfront Stadium Tuesday night.

Bench, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1970, has endured a bad season but in the last few games has shown signs of regaining his old stroke and Tuesday night he clubbed a two-run homer in the ninth to pace Cincinnati over St. Louis 5-3.

"I wish there was a formula," Bench said about digging out of a slump. "If I knew the secret, I wouldn't have waited this long. I'm hoping for a good finish to salvage what I can."

About the homer off Chuck Taylor in the ninth, Bench said, "He just got the pitch up there and I hit and it was gone."

Bench had been booed earlier in the game and he has been a target of boos on many occasions this year.

"I can't blame them because I like to win as much as anyone else and I know they like to see us win too," Bench said. "After a while, you don't care about the boos. You sort of build an outer shell around yourself and it bounces off you. Of course, you feel like you really want to show them—I'm just a little behind in that now."

Bench paced the National League with 45 homers and 148 runs batted in last year. This year, he has hit only 23 homers and driven in only 49 runs.

"I think John has got his swing back in the last four days," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson. "I'm not worried about him for next year because he'll bounce back. But this has just been a bad year for him—particularly with the fans on his back."

St. Louis Manager Red Schoendienst said, "I don't care what kind of year Bench is having. You can't afford to make that kind of pitch to him. The ball was gone all the way."

Bench's homer climaxed a Reds' comeback for the second straight night. On Monday night they spotted the Cardinals a 3-0 lead and came back to win 6-0 on a ninth-inning single by George Foster.

The Cardinals jumped out to a 3-0 margin again Tuesday night.

Garlington Gets Shot At Starting Job

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A year ago linebacker John Garlington lost his starting job because of a shuffling of linebackers while he was injured in the early part of the season.

But the tables might turn this fall for the fourth-year pro from Louisiana State University because of an injury to veteran linebacker Jim Houston.

Garlington became a backup man last fall after starting the season on the left side. But the Jim Houston-middle linebacker experiment failed and the veteran was returned to the outside.

However, Houston suffered a pulled calf muscle in the Browns' last intersquad scrimmage a month ago and has yet to play in the exhibition season. Garlington has stepped in and turned in good performances against both San Francisco and Los Angeles, and chances are he'll start again on Friday against Dallas.

Garlington says he's playing much better than last year because "I never did get over that pulled leg muscle. It took away my speed."

So what happens when Houston recovers from his injury? Head coach Nick Skorich doesn't even know, but says there's one thing that is certain: "The two best linebackers will be starting" (on the outside).

The situation has also been complicated by the excellent performance of Charlie Hall, a rookie from Houston who made eight tackles in a brief performance against the Rams.

Libby Knight Wins Maiden Race At SD

Libby Knight, owned by Harry L. Short of Aiken, S. C., and Porrest Short, Circleville, won the third race at Scioto Downs Tuesday.

The 2-year-old trotter toured the mile in 2:06.4 Forrester Short was in the sulky. It was the first appearance in a betting race for Libby Knight who has won three non-betting races at Scioto this summer.

The mutual payoff for a $2 ticket was $24.60, $9.40 and $5.80.

The 4-1 daily double combination of Astute Student and Miss Star Mite paid $29.60, and the 1-8 quinella $81.

Attendance was 5,454; handle $219,466.

But Pete Rose drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth. Hal McRae belted his sixth home another run in the sixth to then Tommy Helms singled home another run in the sixth to knot the score 3-3.

The Cardinals took a 2-0 lead in the first inning as Joe Torre, the National League's leading hitter, lashed his 19th homer of the season and 200th of his career. Matty Alou scored ahead of him. Joe Hague doubled and scored in the second inning and wound up with three hits.

"That Hague is really hot now and of course Torre has been that way all year," Schoendienst said.

The Reds have now won 10 of their last 14 games and stand 6-2 against the Cardinals.

Cincinnati sends Don Gullett, 13-4, tonight against Bob Gibson who is fresh off the first no-hitter of his career.

Toledo Gets Nod Again In MAC

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Visions of another warm December danced through Jack Murphy's head Tuesday when his Toledo Rockets were installed as Mid-American Conference football title favorites.

"Orlando, Fla., sure is a nice place to be in December when it's cold in Toledo," said Murphy, starting his first season as the Rockets' head coach.

Murphy was thinking about the Tangerine Bowl site. He was there two years ago with Toledo as an assistant coach before guiding Heidelberg, Ohio, College to a 3-6 mark in 1970.

The Rockets, odds-on choice in sports writers, broadcasters and coaches' polls at league meetings Tuesday, have the nation's longest major college streak of 23 games.

"I never heard of a new coach who took over a team with a 23-0 record. It's kinda awesome," said Murphy, replacing Frank Lauterbur who now coaches at Iowa.

The return of 26 lettermen and 15 regulars convinced the writers, radiomen and coaches Toledo will grab a third straight Mid-American title. It's never been accomplished in 25 conference seasons.

Five of the six coaches gave Toledo first place votes and the other mentor selected Western Michigan.

In the media poll, the Rockets bagged 24 1/2 votes, Western Michigan 5 and Ohio University 2 1/2.

Murphy cited a third straight national total defensive title, never accomplished in the NCAA's 103 years and third successive league and Tangerine Bowl crowns as incentives for his veterans.

Les Ealey, a Portsmouth, Ohio senior who has played in 53 straight high school and college wins, is back as Toledo quarterback. He is trying to be the conference player of the year for a third straight season.

"Ealey's the difference between Toledo and the rest of us. He gives them a different dimension," said Ohio's Bill Hess, the dean of conference coaches in his 14th season.

The 6-foot, 185-pound Ealey finished in the nation's top 20 in six departments last year.

Western Michigan, 7-3 to Toledo's 11-0 in regular season play, has the only other quarterback starter returning, little senior Ted Grignon.

This is a main reason Bronco mentor Bill Doolittle thinks Western Michigan has a chance of unseating the Rockets.

"When we were picked for second, they made a mistake of one," Doolittle said. "This is the year of the Bronco."

Grignon already has set a

Exacta Ticket Pays Lucky Fan $37,054

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Charles Town Race Track recorded the second largest big exacta payoff Tuesday night since the wagering system was introduced in West Virginia as an unidentified fan won $37,054 on a $2 ticket.

In the fifth race, Latin Liner paid $83 to win and Plunkett Street returned $12.80 for place. In the second half of the big exacta, heavily favored Bright August was first at $4.40 and Comowill, a 25-1 longshot, was second at $11.80. The winning numbers were 2-6 and 7-1.

The largest payoff in four years of big exacta racing in West Virginia was on Memorial Day, 1969, when a single $2 ticket at Shenandoah Downs was worth $39,780.

Senators Snap Oakland's 12-Game Road Win String

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
The patriotic Oakland A's met with President Richard M. Nixon Tuesday afternoon and a few hours later adopted a freeze on run-making that gave the cold shoulder to their shot at a 59-year-old American League record.

The A's, who had won 12 straight road games, four short of the AL mark set by Washington in 1912, managed just one run against rookie Bill Gogolewski, who pitched the Senators to an 8-1 victory over the West Division's runaway leaders Tuesday night.

So Oakland had to be content with a mere half-game pickup on second place Kansas City which dropped a doubleheader at New York, 2-0 and 8-5.

Elsewhere in the AL Tuesday, California trimmed Boston 4-3, Chicago swept a doubleheader with Detroit, winning the opener 6-5 and taking the night cap 4-1, Cleveland nipped Minnesota 3-2, and Baltimore edged Milwaukee 3-2.

The A's spent a friendly afternoon talking baseball with the president and a not so pleasant evening playing it against the Senators. Don Mincher drove in four Washington runs with a homer and a single and Frank Howard cracked his 21st homer of the season, leading the romp over Oakland.

Gogolewski scattered eight hits and contributed three hits for Washington as the Senators shelled Blue Moon Odom. It was Oakland's first loss to Washington since Opening Day, April 5, when the Senators beat Vida Blue. That was, of course, the Presidential Opener.

Despite their problems with the Senators, the A's gained ground as the Yankees whipped Kansas City twice.

Left-hander Fritz Peterson fired a five-hitter in the first game, winning his 13th in 20 decisions with singles by Danny Cater and Thucman Munson driving in New York's runs.

In the second game, the Yankees exploded for five runs in the seventh inning on homers by Felipe Alou and Bobby Murcer to erase a 4-1 Royals' lead.

Alou's hit was his seventh in 13 pinch hitting appearances this season. He has driven in seven runs as a pinch batter.

Vada Pinson drilled two long drives—one staying in the ballpark and the other going out. Both provided Cleveland with runs as the Indians shaded Minnesota.

Pinson sent Tony Oliva to the fence for his sacrifice fly in the third inning and then tagged one over the wall to snap a tie in the eighth.

Mike Paul earned the victory, outduelling Bert Blyleven with both hurlers going the route.

Jim Spencer drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double as California scored four times in the first inning against Boston. Then Andy Messersmith survived homers by Rico Petrelli and Duane Josephson to pitch the Angels past the Red Sox.

Ellie Hendricks cracked a leadoff homer in the ninth inning, giving the Orioles their victory over Milwaukee.

Steve Huntz ripped two homers including a three-run shot in the bottom of the eighth that gave Chicago its first game victory over Detroit. The homers were the first this season for Huntz.

Bench's Homer Yields Victory For Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Johnny Bench finally silenced the boo birds at Riverfront Stadium Tuesday night.

Bench, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1970, has endured a bad season but in the last few games has shown signs of regaining his old stroke and Tuesday night he clubbed a two-run homer in the ninth to pace Cincinnati over St. Louis 5-3.

"I wish there was a formula," Bench said about digging out of a slump. "If I knew the secret, I wouldn't have waited this long. I'm hoping for a good finish to salvage what I can."

About the homer off Chuck Taylor in the ninth, Bench said, "He just got the pitch up there and I hit and it was gone."

Bench had been booed earlier in the game and he has been a target of boos on many occasions this year.

"I can't blame them because I like to win as much as anyone else and I know they like to see us win too," Bench said. "After a while, you don't care about the boos. You sort of build an outer shell around yourself and it bounces off you. Of course, you feel like you really want to show them—I'm just a little behind in that now."

Bench paced the National League with 45 homers and 148 runs batted in last year. This year, he has hit only 23 homers and driven in only 49 runs.

"I think John has got his swing back in the last four days," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson. "I'm not worried about him for next year because he'll bounce back. But this has just been a bad year for him—particularly with the fans on his back."

St. Louis Manager Red Schoendienst said, "I don't care what kind of year Bench is having. You can't afford to make that kind of pitch to him. The ball was gone all the way."

Bench's homer climaxed a Reds' comeback for the second straight night. On Monday night they spotted the Cardinals a 3-0 lead and came back to win 6-5 on a ninth-inning single by George Foster.

The Cardinals jumped out to a 3-0 margin again Tuesday night.

Garlington Gets Shot At Starting Job

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) —

A year ago linebacker John Garlington lost his starting job because of a shuffling of line-backers while he was injured in the early part of the season.

But the tables might turn this fall for the fourth-year pro from Louisiana State University because of an injury to veteran linebacker Jim Houston.

Garlington became a backup man last fall after starting the season on the left side. But the Jim Houston-middle linebacker experiment failed and the veteran was returned to the outside.

However, Houston suffered a pulled calf muscle in the Browns' last intersquad scrimmage a month ago and has yet to play in the exhibition season. Garlington has stepped in and turned in good performances against both San Francisco and Los Angeles, and chances are he'll start again on Friday against Dallas.

Garlington says he's playing much better than last year because "I never did get over that pulled leg muscle. It took away my speed."

So what happens when Houston recovers from his injury? Head coach Nick Skorich does not even know, but says there's one thing that is certain: "The two best linebackers will be starting" (on the outside).

The situation has also been complicated by the excellent performance of Charlie Hall, a rookie from Houston who made eight tackles in a brief performance against the Rams.

Libby Knight Wins Maiden Race At SD

Libby Knight, owned by Harry L. Short of Aiken, S. C., and Forrest Short, Circleville, won the third race at Scioto Downs Tuesday.

The 2-year-old trotter toured the mile in 2:06.4 Forrest Short was in the sulky. It was the first appearance in a betting race for Libby Knight who has won three non-betting races at Scioto this summer.

The mutual payoff for a $2 ticket was $24.60, $9.40 and $5.80.

The 4-1 daily double combination of Astute Student and Miss Star Mite paid $29.60, and the 1-8 quinella $81.

Attendance was 5,454; handle $219,466.

But Pete Rose drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth, Hal McRae belted his sixth home another run in the sixth to then Tommy Helms singled home another run in the sixth to knot the score 3-3.

The Cardinals took a 2-0 lead in the first inning as Joe Torre, the National League's leading hitter, lashed his 19th homer of the season and 200th of his career. Matty Alou scored ahead of him. Joe Hague doubled and scored in the second inning and wound up with three hits.

"That Hague is really hot now and of course Torre has been that way all year," Schoendienst said.

The Reds have now won 10 of their last 14 games and stand 6-2 against the Cardinals.

Cincinnati sends Don Gullett, 13-4, tonight against Bob Gibson who is fresh off the first no-hitter of his career.

By GEORGE STRODE

Associated Press Sports Writer COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Visions of another warm December danced through Jack Murphy's head Tuesday when his Toledo Rockets were installed as Mid-American Conference football title favorites.

"Orlando, Fla., sure is a nice place to be in December when it's cold in Toledo," said Murphy, starting his first season as the Rockets' head coach.

Murphy was thinking about the Tangerine Bowl site. He was there two years ago with Toledo as an assistant coach before guiding Heidelberg, Ohio, College to a 3-6 mark in 1970.

The Rockets, odds-on choice in sports writers, broadcasters and coaches' polls at league meetings Tuesday, have the nation's longest major college streak of 23 games.

"I never heard of a new coach who took over a team with a 23-0 record. It's kind of awesome," said Murphy, replacing Frank Lautner who now coaches at Iowa.

The return of 26 lettermen and 15 regulars convinced the writers, radiomen and coaches Toledo will grab a third straight Mid-American title. "It's never been accomplished in 25 conference seasons."

In the media poll, the Rockets bagged 24½ votes, Western Michigan 5 and Ohio University 2½.

Murphy cited a third straight national total defensive title, never accomplished in the NCAA's 103 years and third successive league and Tangerine Bowl crowns as incentives for his veterans.

Les Ealey, a Portsmouth, Ohio senior who has played in 53 straight high school and college wins, is back as Toledo quarterback. He is trying to be the conference player of the year for a third straight season.

"Ealey's the difference between Toledo and the rest of us. He gives them a different dimension," said Ohio's Bill Hess, the dean of conference coaches in his 14th season.

The 6-foot, 185-pound Ealey finished in the nation's top 20 in six departments last year.

Western Michigan, 7-3 to Toledo's 11-0 in regular season play, has the only other quarterback starter returning, little senior Ted Grignon.

This is a main reason Bronco mentor Bill Doolittle thinks Western Michigan has a chance of unseating the Rockets.

"When we were picked for second, they made a mistake of one," Doolittle said. "This is the year of the Bronco."

Grignon already has set a

Western Michigan career total offense mark of 2,306 yards.

Ohio, 4-5 overall, will lean heavily on a rushing attack centered around record-setting junior tailback Bill Gary. He rushed for an unprecedented 1,064 yards for the Bobcats last fall.

The Miami Redskins, 7-3 in 1970, will be a solid defensive team led by tri-captains Dick Dougherty, Doug Krause and Marc Smith.

The hopes of Bowling Green, 2-6-1 last year, lie with sophomore tailback Paul Miles, who picked 7.2 yards per rush on the unbeaten 1970 freshmen.

Kent State also has a new coach, Don James. The Golden Flashes, 3-7 last year, lack proven regulars to be a serious challenger.

Kent has two erstwhile trackmen, NCAA record-breaking hammer thrower Al Schoterman and 9.5 dashman Len Turner, trying football. Schoterman is a defensive tackle candidate and Turner a split end.

The conference will remain a six-member football league until 1975 when new additions Central Michigan and Eastern Michigan enter the race.

Hunt Triggers Brawl As Expos Romp, 11-0

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ron Hunt was tired of being hit—and he started swinging back.

Johnny Bench was tired of being booed—and he also started swinging back.

Hunt, the pugnacious Montreal second baseman, was hit twice by pitches—the second triggering a free-for-all—as the Expos pounded out an 11-0 decision over the San Diego Padres Tuesday night.

Bench, the National League's most valuable player, home run leader and runs batted in champion in 1970, quieted the boo-birds at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, slugging a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning, giving the Reds a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Elsewhere in the National League Tuesday, Houston defeated Pittsburgh 6-5; Atlanta edged Chicago 5-4; San Francisco downed Philadelphia 5-1, and Los Angeles blanked New York 4-0.

Hunt recently broke the modern major league record for getting hit by the pitch the most times in one season, eclipsing the mark of 31 set by Louis Evans of St. Louis in 1910.

Against the Padres, he was hit for the 33rd time this season by a pitch from loser Steve Arlin in the third inning. Hunt was nicked by another Arlin delivery in the fifth inning—and that's when he began retaliating.

He ripped off the mask of San Diego catcher Bob Barton and landed a hard blow to the face. Then he took a smash to the head, before bashing Barton again. Players from both benches poured onto the field.

In a separate melee, Arlin was dragged to the ground by Montreal pitcher Carl Morton, who is scheduled to work tonight. There also was a lot of pushing and shoving before order was restored.

When matters seemingly quieted down, Hunt was ejected by plate umpire Mel Steiner. That set off Montreal Manager Gene Mauch, who argued vehemently with Steiner. It was to no avail.

Barton and Arlin, apparently none the worse for the fight, remained in the game. Arlin, however, wished he hadn't. He was tagged for a run-scoring single by Rusty Staub and a bases-loaded triple by Bob Bailley.

Meanwhile, rookie Ernie McAnally shacked the Padres on four hits.

Bench, known more for his slugging exploits with a bat than with his fists, has been mired in a slump for most of the season—and the Cincinnati fans have been showering him with boos. He turned the boos to cheers with his game-winning shot against the Cards.

The Reds' catcher drilled a pitch from reliever Chuck Taylor over the left center field wall, scoring Lee May, who had singled earlier in the ninth. It was Bench's 23rd homer of the season and gave him 51 runs batted in.

Hal McRae also homered for the Reds, while St. Louis' Joe Torre, the National League's leading hitter, smashed his 200th career homer.

Cesar Cedeno's two-run single highlighted a five-run seventh inning rally that enabled Houston to overcome Pittsburgh. Denis Menke and Jesus Alou also singled in runs during the uprising and Doug Rader knocked in the other run with a sacrifice fly.

Roberto Clemente had four RBI for the Pirates with a single, a two-run homer and a sacrifice fly.

Despite the loss, the Pirates' 15th in their last 19 games, Pittsburgh remained five games ahead of St. Louis and 5½ in front of Chicago in the NL East.

Chicago missed an opportunity to take over second place and gain ground on Pittsburgh by losing to Atlanta. Pinch hitter Zoilo Versalles greeted reliever Ray Newman with a homer, his fifth of the season, leading off the ninth inning, breaking a 4-4 tie.

Rookie Earl Williams blasted his 24th homer for the Braves over the center field fence in the fifth inning, while Ron Santo cracked a three-run homer for the Cubs.

Gaylord Perry became the top winner on the San Francisco staff, gaining his 13th victory with a seven-hitter as the Giants maintained their 6½-game advantage over Los Angeles in the National League West.

The Giants took command in the first inning when they scored three runs on only one hit—Ken Henderson's leadoff double.

After Henderson's hit, Tito Fuentes was hit by a pitch and Willie Mays walked, filling the bases. Bobby Bonds' force out grounder drove in Henderson and Dave Kingman hit a sacrifice fly, scoring Fuentes. Then, Bonds came all the way around from first on a passed ball and two wild pitches.

Los Angeles' Claude Osteen earned his 12th victory of the season—but his first since July 19—with a sparkling three-hitter against the faltering Mets, who suffered their sixth loss in seven games. The Dodgers' left-hander allowed only one runner past first base, while striking out five and walking only two.

The Dodgers scored all their runs in the first three innings against fireballing Nolan Ryan, with Osteen doubling in one.

FROM THE GROUND UP — Horses in this race at Saratoga Springs, N.Y., go into outer space, too, as they virtually fly home with Busy Olympian the easy winner.

Top Netters Won't Show For U.S. Open

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. Open, scheduled to start Sept. 1 at Forest Hills, is a tennis tournament with prestige, glamour and a $160,000 purse.

It is also a tennis tournament without many of the top names in the game.

Ken Rosewall of Australia, the defending champion, and fellow Aussies Roy Emerson, Tony Roche and Fred Stolle won't be competing, nor will Andres Gimeno of Spain.

A spokesman for World Championship Tennis in Dallas, Tex., said a letter had been sent to tournament director Bill Talbert saying the four Australians and Gimeno would not be competing.

"Certainly no tournament is as exciting without them," Talbert declared. "I have no idea what is going through their heads. To me it's like Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus saying they weren't playing in golf's U.S. Open."

The absence of the five pro stars could be a result of the renewed feud between World Championship Tennis, Inc. and the International Tennis Federation.

The U.S. Open is one of the tournaments from which all WCT contract pros have been banned, effective Jan. 1, by the ILTF.

Others who'll be missing from the U.S. Open include Australian Rod Laver, who won the tournament in 1969. After losing early in the recent Canadian Open, Laver packed his bags and said he needed a rest from tennis.

The two most prominent names in women's tennis, Evonne Goolagong and Margaret Court, also won't be competing. Miss Goolagong is passing up Forest Hills on the advice of her coach, Vic Edwards, who says she needs a rest. Mrs. Court has left the tennis tour because she is pregnant.

Dr. Tony Adamle, former linebacker-fullback with the Cleveland Browns, is head of Kent State's athletic medical staff.

Colts Aiming For Another Title

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — The Baltimore Colts, taunted in 1970 for playing an easy schedule and left for dead by some after the second game, open the 1971 National Football League season as defending champions.

Baltimore scrambled to an 11-2-1 record in regular season play a year ago without silencing their critics, but then defied the experts by winning the Super Bowl.

The Colts were hardly impressive as they edged eight opponents by margins of eight points or less. Only three Colts—all defensive players—were named to the Pro Bowl game, and not a single one made the All-NFL first team.

But they won. They did it with a fine defense, special teams which provided good field position, and an offense which made the big play when necessary.

This season, the Colts will face a tougher schedule. Two of their six interdivision foes won championships last year and three others finished second.

For the second time in four seasons, venerable quarterback John Unitas will be sidelined by an injury as the campaign begins, with Earl Morrall taking over the No. 1 spot.

Unitas is progressing more rapidly than expected from a torn Achilles tendon suffered during the off season. But the team gains well behind Morrall, who like Unitas is starting his 16th NFL season.

An injury to Morrall, would be a problem, however, since he is backed up only by rookie Karl Douglas and Sam Havrilak, a third-year pro halfback who played quarterback at Bucknell.

The Colts, usually a bit weak on the running game, appear to be overloaded at that spot this year.

Tom Matte, sidelined most of last season with a knee injury after gaining 909 yards in 1969, is back for his 11th season. Starting with him in the backfield will be Norm Bulaich, who led the Colts as a rookie last year with 426 yards.

Backing them will be rookie Don McCauley, the No. 1 draft choice from North Carolina who gained an NCAA record 1,720 yards in college, and veterans Jerry Hill, Tom Nowatzke and Jack Maitland.

The corps of wide receivers has been depleted with the retirement of Jimmy Orr and the trading of discontented Roy Jefferson, who caught 44 passes last year.

That leaves Eddie Hinton, who led the team with 47 receptions, and Ray Perkins as the only experienced wide receivers, but John Mackey and Tom Mitchell form a potent one-two punch at tight end.

"We hope to have a more balanced attack this year," says Coach Don McCafferty, and the stable of runners may make this possible. Last season, the Colts gained twice as much yardage in the air as on the ground.

The offensive line is back intact with Bill Curry at center, Glen Ressler and John Williams at guard and Bob Vogel and Dan Sullivan at tackle.

But the strength of the Colts again appears to be the defense, which allowed an average of 13 points over the final 12 contests of 1970.

Ends Bubba Smith and Roy Hilton anchor the front four, which lost tackle Billy Ray Smith through retirement and has tackles Jim Bailey and Fred Miller coming off knee operations. Billy Newsome and George Wright are capable reserves.

The linebacking crew of Ray May, Mike Curtis and Ted Hendricks is excellent, as are safeties Rick Volk and Jerry Logan.

Cornerbacks Jim Duncan and Charlie Stukes are young and still learning. Rookie Leonard Dunlap of North Texas State, another first round draft choice, has looked promising.

Duncan averaged 35.4 yards on kickoff returns a year ago and Ron Gardin averaged 11.8 yards returning punts—both Colt records.

Punter David Lee had a fine 44.7-yard average and place kicker Jim O'Brien, whose field goal defeated Dallas 16-13 in the Super Bowl, give the Colts an excellent kicking game.

If the Colts stay healthy at positions where they lack depth, they should be in contention for another division title despite the tougher schedule.

Manning Will Face Chiefs Before New Orleans Fans

By ALEX SACHARE
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New Orleans Saints will play their first home exhibition game of the season Saturday night against the Kansas City Chiefs, and Archie Manning, the high-priced rookie from Mississippi will get the starting assignment before the hometown fans.

Manning is battling holdover Edd Hargett for the starting quarterback berth, but since he represents such a sizeable investment—and since his college exploits made Manning a familiar name to sports fans throughout the deep south—it's only understandable that the New Orleans brass would like to see Manning make good right away.

During the off-season the Saints dealt away Billy Kilmer, the team's No. 1 quarterback, opening the door for Manning. Hargett, who started four games last year and completed 78 of 175 pass attempts, admittedly has one foot in the door because of his experience, but it remains open for Manning.

In last week's 36-21 loss to Dallas, Hargett was the starter but failed to move the team, leaving at halftime with the Saints behind 27-0. Manning took over for the second half, completed 9 of 22 passes and engineered the team's three touchdown drives, throwing for one score and tallying once on the ground.

Two other quarterbacks, Dick Shiner of the New York Giants and Jerry Rhyme of Houston, are hoping to find new places to play.

Shiner, who walked out of the Giants' camp last weekend, has one message for Coach Alex Webster: "Trade me. I just want out."

Shiner was scheduled to start an exhibition game Sunday night, but left the team prior to the game. "It would have been crazy of me to play," Shiner explained. "I hadn't signed a contract and I wasn't going to play unless I was signed."

Rhyme, a seven-year veteran who spent most of his career in Dallas, was cut by the Houston Oilers. Houston Coach Ed

Jack Shoots For Season Money Mark

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jack Nicklaus will be gunning for the top spot on the year's money winning list and possibly an all time record high for a single season in the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

The 72-hole test gets underway Thursday on the 6,708-yard, par-72 Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course with Nicklaus the only one of the top five money winners in the 147-man field.

Nicklaus, winner of the PGA championship and three other titles this season, has won $194,813 in only 14 starts this season and trails Lee Trevino by only $2,406.

If the records are any indication, Nicklaus is almost certain to pass Super Mex Trevino, who is recovering from an emergency appendectomy in New Mexico.

Nicklaus, idle last week and a late arrival here, has averaged $13,201 a start this season and has been fourth or better nine times, performance-level that is matched only by the idle Trevino.

And, too, he could break his own single-season money winning record of $211,556 by finishing second $17,100 or pulling down the $30,000 first-place prize.

STRAINED RELATIONS—A difference of opinion, if you will, and you just know that manager Bill Rigney (left) of the Twins didn't win this one from ump Ron Luciano.

Colts Aiming For Another Title

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — The Baltimore Colts, taunted in 1970 for playing an easy schedule and left for dead by some after the second game, open the 1971 National Football League season as defending champions.

ORDINANCE NO. 154-A
Fixing and regulating the price that may be charged by Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., its successors or assigns for natural gas to the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, and to its inhabitants, for the period of Four (4) Years from and after the effective date of this ordinance, and repealing Ordinance No. 154A passed by the Council of the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, on the 3rd day of September, 1968, entitled: "Ordinance No. 154A — Fixing and regulating the price that may be charged by Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., its successors or assigns, for natural gas to the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, and to its inhabitants, for the period of Three (3) Years from and after the effective date of this ordinance."

SECTION 1: That, for the period of Two (2) Years from and after the effective date of this ordinance, the maximum price which Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., its successors or assigns, shall be permitted to charge for and the minimum price at which it or they shall be required to furnish natural gas to the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, and to its inhabitants, shall be and the same is hereby fixed for each individual consumer, as follows:

Thirty-five cents (35.0c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for the first 2,000 cubic feet used through each meter each month;
Eleven and four-tenths cents (11.4-10c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for the next 8,000 cubic feet used through each meter each month;
Eight and two-tenths cents (8.2-10c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for all in excess of 10,000 cubic feet, used through each meter each month;

A Minimum Charge for each customer each month of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) shall be made. If service under this rate schedule is discontinued at the request of customer, the Company shall be under no obligation to resume service to the same customer on the same premises until the customer has made payment of an amount equal to the minimum monthly charge for each month of the intervening period, but not to exceed twelve (12) months.

From and after the expiration of the aforesaid Two Year period and for a further period of Two (2) Years thereafter, as follows:
Thirty-five cents (35.0c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for the first 2,000 cubic feet used through each meter each month;
Eleven and nine-tenths cents (11.9-10c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for the next 8,000 cubic feet used through each meter each month;
Eight and three-tenths cents (8.3-10c) per one hundred (100) cubic feet for all in excess of 10,000 cubic feet, used through each meter each month;

A Minimum charge for each customer each month of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) shall be made. If service under this rate schedule is discontinued at the request of customer, the Company shall be under no obligation to resume service to the same customer on the same premises until the customer has made payment of an amount equal to the minimum monthly charge for each month of the intervening period, but not to exceed twelve (12) months.

FUEL COST CLAUSE
The service rates prescribed above are subject to an adjustment for any change in the rates paid by Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., (Company) to Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia Gas Transmission) for the purchase of natural gas or for any refund or rebates received from Columbia Gas Transmission, as hereinafter provided. Columbia Gas Transmission's rates to the Company are regulated by the Federal Power Commission.

The service rates prescribed above are subject to an adjustment for any change in the rates paid by the Company to Columbia Gas Transmission under the FPC CDS Rate Schedule of $3.30 per month per one thousand (1,000) cubic feet of billing demand and 34.2c per one thousand (1,000) cubic feet of Billing Demand and 37.57 per month per one thousand (1,000) cubic feet of Winter Contract Quantity. These rates are hereinafter referred to as the "base rates."

A Purchased Gas Adjustment. When any change is made in the rates paid by the Company to Columbia Gas Transmission, the service rates herein shall be increased or decreased in the following manner:

(1) Gas purchased by the Company during the twelve (12) month period ending on the second month preceding the month in which new rates of Columbia Gas Transmission are first used in computing the monthly bill to the Company shall be priced:

(a) at the base rates, and
(b) at the new rates.

The difference in the base rates and at the new rates in the manner set forth above, shall be divided by the volume of gas purchased by the Company during the same twelve (12) month period in which the increase or decrease in the base rates occurred, to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent, which shall be the "purchased gas adjustment."

(2) The service rates shall be increased or decreased by the amount of the purchased gas adjustment as determined in paragraph A (1), effective with bills rendered on and after the 30th day of the month following the date on which new rates of Columbia Gas Transmission are first used in computing the monthly bill to the Company, provided that the Company shall have filed with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the Clerk of Council of the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date, a computation in support of said purchased gas adjustment, together with a notice that such purchased gas adjustment is to be placed in effect at 12:01 a.m. on the effective date and shall apply to all bills rendered on and after that date.

Refund Adjustment
Whenever during a quarterly period ending each March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, the Company shall decrease the service rates in the following manner:

(1) Dividing said refund of the actual volume of gas purchased during the twelve (12) month period ending with the quarter in which the refund was received. The quotient so determined to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent shall be the "refund adjustment."

(2) The service rates which would otherwise be in effect shall be decreased for the entire month period commencing on the first day of the third month after the quarterly period in which the refund or rebates were received. The refund adjustment shall terminate at the end of said twelve (12) months.

Baltimore scrambled to an 11-2-1 record in regular season play a year ago without silence from their critics, but then defied the experts by winning the Super Bowl.

The Colts were hardly impressive as they edged eight opponents by margins of eight points or less. Only three Colts—all defensive players—were named to the Pro Bowl game, and not a single one made the All-NFL first team.

But they won. They did it with a fine defense, special teams which provided good field position, and an offense which made the big play when necessary.

This season, the Colts will face a tougher schedule. Two of their six interdivision foes won championships last year and three others finished second.

For the second time in four seasons, venerable quarterback John Unitas will be sidelined by an injury as the campaign begins, with Earl Morrall taking over the No. 1 spot.

Unitas is progressing more rapidly than expected from a torn Achilles tendon suffered during the off season. But the Colts, thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of this ordinance, in support of said refund adjustment together with a notice that the refund adjustment will be placed in effect as of 12:01 a.m. on the effective date and shall apply to all bills rendered on and after that date for the twelve (12) month period. Such filing shall also set forth the combined effect of the current refund adjustment and the refund adjustments determined as herein provided for the next four (4) quarterly periods.

(4) Any refund adjustment, made under the Company's former fuel cost clause, which has not been in effect for twelve (12) months at the time the instant ordinance becomes effective shall continue in effect until such time as the Company shall file a computation with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the Clerk of Council of the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, in support of any refund adjustment determined under this ordinance.

SECTION 2: That it is expressly conditioned the service to be rendered by said Company, its successors or assigns pursuant to this ordinance shall be primarily for domestic and commercial purposes and that service shall not be extended to other consumers of different classes until after all reasonable requirements for domestic and commercial purposes are fully met, and this provision shall be binding upon said Company, its successors or assigns, and shall remain in full force and effect for each month of each year, but during any month or year, subject to the foregoing limitations and after compliance with the foregoing provisions gas may be delivered to any other consumer and additional classes of consumers at such times and under such conditions and for such rates as may be agreed upon between the Company and such consumer.

SECTION 3: That Ordinance No. 154A passed by the Council of the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, on the 3rd day of September, 1968, entitled: "Ordinance No. 154A — Fixing and regulating the price that may be charged by Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., its successors or assigns, for natural gas to the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, and to its inhabitants, for the period of Three (3) Years from and after the effective date of this ordinance;" be and the same is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4: The terms and conditions of the service to be rendered shall conform to and be subject to the Rules and Regulations for furnishing gas service of the Company on file and approved by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

SECTION 5: That the natural gas furnished or delivered pursuant to the terms of this ordinance, by the said Company, shall have an average heating value of 1,000 British thermal units per cubic foot for any consecutive twelve (12) month period subject to a variance of not more than five (5) per cent upward or downward.

SECTION 6: In the event the State of Ohio, or the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, shall impose a tax upon the Company that is not now imposed, or should hereafter increase the rate of any tax now imposed upon the Company above the tax rate now existing, other than the rate on property located in the real estate tax list and duplicate, then the rates prescribed in Section 1 shall be increased to the extent necessary to compensate the Company for the increase in cost due to such new tax or higher tax rate. This shall be done in the following manner:

(a) If the new tax or higher tax rate is computed in direct relation to gas sold or revenues received from the sale of gas, then the total dollar effect thereof upon the cost of serving gas to the Company in the Village shall be determined, based upon operations of the Company in the Village during the most recent available twelve month period ending on the last day of the December preceding the effective date of the new tax or higher tax rate; the total dollar so computed shall then be divided by the total sales made to the types of customers covered by this ordinance during the same twelve month period and the rates prescribed herein shall be correspondingly adjusted.

The adjustment of the rates prescribed in this Ordinance, as provided in subparagraphs (a) and (b) above, shall be made by rounding the mathematical result of the computation so prescribed to the nearest one quarter cent (1/4c) per one thousand cubic feet.

The adjusted rate shall be placed in effect and shall apply to all meter readings occurring on and after the effective date of the statute, ordinance or resolution pursuant to which the new tax or increased tax rate is imposed.

Written notification of the adjustment shall be sent to the Clerk of the Village as quickly as possible after the effect of the new tax or higher tax rate can be determined.

SECTION 7: That any ordinance, resolution, or part of an ordinance or resolution, inconsistent herewith, is to the extent of such inconsistency hereby repealed.

SECTION 8: That should any section or part of a section or provision of a section of this ordinance be declared void, the remainder of this ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 9: That this ordinance shall become effective at the earliest date allowed by law, provided however that this ordinance shall have no force or effect whatsoever unless written acceptance of this ordinance is filed by the Company with the Clerk of Council of the Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date this ordinance is passed.

team gains well behind Morrall, who like Unitas is starting his 16th NFL season. An injury to Morrall, would be a problem, however, since he is backed up only by rookie Karl Douglas and Sam Havrilak, a third-year pro halfback who played quarterback at Bucknell.

The Colts, usually a bit weak on the running game, appear to be overloaded at that spot this year.

Tom Matte, sidelined most of last season with a knee injury after gaining 909 yards in 1969, is back for his 11th season. Starting with him in the backfield will be Norm Bulach, who led the Colts as a rookie last year with 426 yards.

Backing them will be rookie Don McCauley, the No. 1 draft choice from North Carolina who gained an NCAA record 1,720 yards in college, and veterans Jerry Hill, Tom Nowatzke and Jack Maitland.

The corps of wide receivers has been depleted with the retirement of Jimmy Orr and the trading of discontented Roy Jefferson, who caught 44 passes last year.

That leaves Eddie Hinton, who led the team with 47 receptions, and Ray Perkins as the only experienced wide receivers, but John Mackey and Tom Mitchell form a potent one-two punch at tight end.

"We hope to have a more balanced attack this year," says Coach Don McCafferty, and the stable of runners may make this possible. Last season, the Colts gained twice as much yardage in the air as on the ground.

The offensive line is back in tact with Bill Curry at center, Glen Kessler and John Williams at guard and Bob Vogel and Dan Sullivan at tackle.

But the strength of the Colts again appears to be the defense, which allowed an average of 13 points over the final 12 contests of 1970.

Ends Bubba Smith and Roy Hilton anchor the front four, which lost tackle Billy Ray Smith through retirement and has tackles Jim Bailey and Fred Miller coming off knee operations. Billy Newsome and George Wright are capable reserves.

The linebacking crew of Ray May, Mike Curtis and Ted Hendricks is excellent, as are safeties Rick Volk and Jerry Logan.

Cornerbacks Jim Duncan and Charlie Stukes are young and still learning. Rookie Leonard Dunlap of North Texas State, another first round draft choice, has looked promising.

Duncan averaged 35.4 yards on kickoff returns a year ago and Ron Gardin averaged 11.8 yards returning punts—both Colt records.

Punter David Lee had a fine 41.7-yard average and place kicker Jim O'Brien, whose field goal defeated Dallas 16-13 in the Super Bowl, give the Colts an excellent kicking game.

If the Colts stay healthy at positions where they lack depth, they should be in contention for another division title despite the tougher schedule.

Manning Will Face Chiefs Before New Orleans Fans

By ALEX SACHARE
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New Orleans Saints will play their first home exhibition game of the season Saturday night against the Kansas City Chiefs, and Archie Manning, the high-priced rookie from Mississippi will get the starting assignment before the hometown fans.

Manning is battling holdover Edd Hargett for the starting quarterback berth, but since he represents such a sizeable investment—and since his college exploits made Manning a familiar name to sports fans throughout the deep south—it's only understandable that the New Orleans brass would like to see Manning make good right away.

During the off-season the Saints dealt away Billy Kilmer, the team's No. 1 quarterback, opening the door for Manning. Hargett, who started four games last year and completed 78 of 175 pass attempts, admittedly has one foot in the door because of his experience, but it remains open for Manning.

In last week's 36-21 loss to Dallas, Hargett was the starter but failed to move the team, leaving at halftime with the Saints behind 27-0. Manning took over for the second half, completed 9 of 22 passes and engineered the team's three touchdown drives, throwing for one score and tallying once on the ground.

Two other quarterbacks, Dick Shiner of the New York Giants and Jerry Rhyme of Houston, are hoping to find new places to play.

Shiner, who walked out of the Giants' camp last weekend, has one message for Coach Alex Webster: "Trade me. I just want out."

Shiner was scheduled to start an exhibition game Sunday night, but left the team prior to the game. "It would have been crazy of me to play," Shiner explained. "I hadn't signed a contract and I'd made up my mind that I wasn't going to play unless I was signed."

Rhyme, a seven-year veteran who spent most of his career in Dallas, was cut by the Houston Oilers. Houston Coach Ed

Hughes has decided to go with veteran Charley Johnson and rookies Dan Pastorini of Santa Clara and Lynn Dickey of Kansas State at quarterback.

Other veterans to feel the ax were defensive lineman Al Dotson, dropped by the Oakland Raiders, and versatile Phil Vanderscha, cut loose by the Green Bay Packers. In five pro seasons, Vanderscha played every position with the Packers except quarterback and defensive back.

Jack Shoots For Season Money Mark

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jack Nicklaus will be gunning for the top spot on the year's money winning list and possibly an all time record high for a single season in the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

The 72-hole test gets underway Thursday on the 6,708-yard, par-72 Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course with Nicklaus the only one of the top five money winners in the 147-man field.

Nicklaus, winner of the PGA championship and three other titles this season, has won $194,813 in only 14 starts this season and trails Lee Trevino by only $2,406.

If the records are any indication, Nicklaus is almost certain to pass Super Mex Trevino, who is recovering from an emergency appendectomy in New Mexico.

Nicklaus, idle last week and a late arrival here, has averaged $13,201 a start this season and has been fourth or better nine times, performance-level that is matched only by the idle Trevino.

And, too, he could break his own single-season money winning record of $211,556 by finishing second $17,100 or pulling down the $30,000 first-place prize.

Monetary Fund Yet To React To Junking Of Gold Standard

WASHINGTON (AP) — In what would be a blow of disapproval, the International Monetary Fund has yet to react to removal of the U.S. dollar from its free convertibility to gold.

A spokesman for the 18-nation organization said its 20 member executive board still is considering the action President Nixon took Sunday.

The board met twice Monday but failed to meet again Tuesday, indicating differences among members checking with home governments. No further meetings have been scheduled.

When West Germany floated its mark on the world monetary markets two years ago and again this year to relieve pressure by speculators, the IMF did not approve the action because it violated technical agreements of members to maintain the par value of their currencies.

The IMF, created along with the World Bank after World War II, oversees monetary relations in the non-Communist world.

IMF sources said the United States can buy or sell either gold or other currencies to support the value of the dollar. Since Nixon suspended gold transactions to support the dollar, the IMF apparently feels the United States should purchase foreign currencies such as the mark or the Japanese yen.

SCOPS Hears Plea For Restoration

The South Central Ohio Preservation Society met Saturday in Chillicothe at the first Presbyterian Church. Members gathered for a coffee hour prior to the 10 a. m. meeting conducted by the president, Lazlo Koe Krompecher of Athens.

In a discussion that followed the business session Koe Krompecher spoke about an oral history project at Ohio University. He stated that many interesting legends and myths survive in the minds and recollections of older people. When taped these recollections prove both fascinating and accurate.

Franklin B. Conaway was the featured speaker. He is involved in Chillicothe's restoration plan for certain historical districts.

Conaway, who has studied city planning both here and abroad made a plea for restoration of old districts. He advised cities who find their business districts moving out to fringe areas to do something.

First he said to start with a workable plan. Then get the backing of public officials and service groups. According to Conaway rehabilitation invariably follows restoration.

After luncheon members toured a new restaurant located in the historic old Poland home of West Second Street. This house was built in 1851 and is said to be a fine example of Steamboat Gothic architecture.

The group then went on a walking tour of West Second and West Water Streets where actual restoration is taking place. In one district members of the Chillicothe Junior Chamber of Commerce were busy painting store fronts.

Representing Pickaway County at the SCOPS meeting were Co-county-contact chairman, Mrs. Don Miller and Mrs. Richard Jones and Mrs. Ralph Woolever and Miss Nelle Osterle.

Copter Explosion Claims 38 GIs

PEGNITZ, Germany (AP) — A U.S. Army transport helicopter with 38 men aboard exploded in the air today near the Grafenwoehr training area and there were no known survivors, the Army reported.

Witnesses said the helicopter broke into two after the explosion and the fiery wreckage fell to earth at the edge of a woods between this Bavarian city and the Nuernberg-Berlin autobahn.

A spokesman at Grafenwoehr, 12 miles east of the crash site, said the CH47 Chinook helicopter was on a training flight from Regensburg to Grafenwoehr.

A spokesman for the U.S. Army's European Command in Heidelberg said 25 bodies had been recovered from the charred wreckage.

The helicopter carried a crew of five and 33 members of the 50th Artillery Brigade, the spokesman said.

Local School Tax Shows Increase

Property taxes levied for public school purposes in Pickaway County increased from $1,976,606 in 1960 to $4,034,945 levied for collection in 1970.

The increase totals $2,058,339 or 104 per cent in school property taxes for the county during the ten-year period. This information was released following a new statistical study by the Ohio Public Expenditure Council.

Lowest in the state for percentage of increase were Pike and Jackson Counties with only 58. Lowest actual payment of school property taxes is recorded in Vinton County with $576,203.

The highest increasing percentage noted was in Green County. Over the ten year period, school property taxes increases 215 per cent from $3,461,566 to $10,911,701.

The OPEC did note that property taxes levied for public school purposes accounted for 85 per cent of the total statewide property tax increase in 1970.

NIXON STUNS WORLD LEADERS—Following President Nixon's shock-the-economy speech freezing wages, prices and rents, and calling for a "floating" (devalued) dollar, stunned world leaders and financial circles plunged into a period of turmoil. In Tokyo, stock market clerks (right) gesture with their hands during frenzied trading in dollars, and the Bank of Japan intervenes to prevent the dollar from dropping below the government-set exchange rate with the yen.

No Agreement Is Reached By Great Lakes Conference

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich. (AP) — Canadian officials appeared opposed to joining eight Great Lakes states in bidding for a single international agency able to fight pollution along the common border.

Canadian reluctance emerged with the close of a two-day conference here between U.S. and Canadian lakes states and provinces. It signaled continued federal control over air and water pollution surveillance along the 3,000-mile boundary from Duluth, Minn. in the west to Mesena, N.Y. in the east.

President Nixon and Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau of Canada expect by the end of the year to sign a treaty upgrading the International Joint Commission, the mutual watchdog agency between the two countries.

But the new treaty will not contain provisions for the proposed water quality board that American governors hoped would help them deal directly with their Canadian counterparts.

Instead, proposed "institutional agreements" would give the states only the role of advisors to their federal government. They would not be able to bypass those bureaucracies as many of the eight had hoped.

Michigan's Gov. William G. Milliken acknowledged the apparent inability to reach common accord at a conference working session Monday.

"It appears institutional barriers are being raised to the adoption of a truly effective international agreement," he said. Govs. John J. Gilligan, Ohio; Patrick J. Lucey, Wisconsin; and Wendell R. Anderson, Minnesota echoed that belief.

Privately Milliken acknowledged that U.S. and Canadian federal agencies inevitably would remain "the final arbiters" of any treaty.

Julian J. Clark Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., will be the site of the Davis Cup challenge round matches, Oct. 8-10.

Monetary Fund Yet To React To Junking Of Gold Standard

WASHINGTON (AP) — In what would be a frown of disapproval, the International Monetary Fund has yet to react to removal of the U.S. dollar from its free convertibility to gold.

A spokesman for the 18-nation organization said its 20 member executive board still is considering the action President Nixon took Sunday.

The board met twice Monday but failed to meet again Tuesday, indicating differences among members checking with home governments. No further meetings have been scheduled.

When West Germany floated its mark on the world monetary markets two years ago and again this year to relieve pressure by speculators, the IMF did not approve the action because it violated technical agreements of members to maintain the par value of their currencies.

The IMF, created along with the World Bank after World War II, oversees monetary relations in the non-Communist world.

IMF sources said the United States can buy or sell either gold or other currencies to support the value of the dollar. Since Nixon suspended gold transactions to support the dollar, the IMF apparently feels the United States should purchase foreign currencies such as the mark or the Japanese yen.

SCOPS Hears Plea For Restoration

The South Central Ohio Preservation Society met Saturday in Chillicothe at the first Presbyterian Church. Members gathered for a coffee hour prior to the 10 a. m. meeting conducted by the president, Lazlo Koe Krompecher of Athens.

In a discussion that followed the business session Koe Krompecher spoke about an oral history project at Ohio University. He stated that many interesting legends and myths survive in the minds and recollections of older people. When taped these recollections prove both fascinating and accurate.

Franklin B. Conaway was the featured speaker. He is involved in Chillicothe's restoration plan for certain historical districts.

Conaway, who has studied city planning both here and abroad made a plea for restoration of old districts. He advised cities who find their business districts moving out to fringe areas to do something.

First he said to start with a workable plan. Then get the backing of public officials and service groups. According to Conaway rehabilitation invariably follows restoration.

After luncheon members toured a new restaurant located in the historic old Poland home of West Second Street. This house was built in 1851 and is said to be a fine example of Steamboat Gothic architecture.

The group then went on a walking tour of West Second and West Water Streets where actual restoration is taking place. In one district members of the Chillicothe Junior Chamber of Commerce were busy painting store fronts.

Representing Pickaway County at the SCOPS meeting were Co-county-contact chairman, Mrs. Don Miller and Mrs. Richard Jones and Mrs. Ralph Woolever and Miss Nelle Oesterle.

Copter Explosion Claims 38 GIs

PEGNITZ, Germany (AP) — A U.S. Army transport helicopter with 38 men aboard exploded in the air today near the Grafenwoehr training area and there were no known survivors, the Army reported.

Witnesses said the helicopter broke into two after the explosion and the fiery wreckage fell to earth at the edge of a woods between the Bavarian city and the Nuernberg-Berlin autobahn.

A spokesman at Grafenwoehr, 12 miles east of the crash site, said the CH47 Chinook helicopter was on a training flight from Regensburg to Grafenwoehr.

A spokesman for the U.S. Army's European Command in Heidelberg said 25 bodies had been recovered from the charred wreckage.

The helicopter carried a crew of five and 33 members of the 50th Artillery Brigade, the spokesman said.

Local School Tax Shows Increase

Property taxes levied for public school purposes in Pickaway County increased from $1,976,606 in 1960 to $4,034,945 levied for collection in 1970.

The increase totals $2,058,339 or 104 per cent in school property taxes for the county during the ten-year period. This information was released following a new statistical study by the Ohio Public Expenditure Council.

Lowest in the state for percentage of increase were Pike and Jackson Counties with only 58. Lowest actual payment of school property taxes is recorded in Vinton County with $576,203.

The highest increasing percentage noted was in Green County. Over the ten year period, school property taxes increases 215 per cent from $3,461,566 to $10,911,701.

The OPEC did note that property taxes levied for public school purposes accounted for 85 per cent of the total statewide property tax increase in 1970.

NIXON STUNS WORLD LEADERS—Following President Nixon's shock-the-economy speech freezing wages, prices and rents, and calling for a "floating" (devalued) dollar, stunned world leaders and financial circles plunged into a period of turmoil. In Tokyo, stock market clerks (right) gesture with their hands during frenzied trading in dollars, and the Bank of Japan intervenes to prevent the dollar from dropping below the government-set exchange rate with the yen.

No Agreement Is Reached By Great Lakes Conference

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich. (AP) — Canadian officials appeared opposed to joining eight Great Lakes states in bidding for a single international agency able to fight pollution along the common border.

Canadian reluctance emerged with the close of a two-day conference here between U.S. and Canadian lakes states and provinces. It signaled continued federal control over air and water pollution surveillance along the 3,000-mile boundary from Duluth, Minn. in the west to Mesena, N.Y. in the east.

President Nixon and Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau of Canada expect by the end of the year to sign a treaty upgrading the International Joint Commission, the mutual watchdog agency between the two countries.

But the new treaty will not contain provisions for the proposed water quality board that American governors hoped would help them deal directly with their Canadian counterparts.

Instead, proposed "institutional agreements" would give the states only the role of advisors to their federal government. They would not be able to bypass those bureaucracies as many of the eight had hoped.

Michigan's Gov. William G. Milliken acknowledged the apparent inability to reach common accord at a conference working session Monday.

"It appears institutional barriers are being raised to the adoption of a truly effective international agreement," he said. Govs. John J. Gilligan, Ohio; Patrick J. Lucey, Wisconsin; and Wendell R. Anderson, Minnesota echoed that belief.

Privately Milliken acknowledged that U.S. and Canadian federal agencies inevitably would remain "the final arbiters" of any treaty.

Julian J. Clark Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., will be the site of the Davis Cup challenge round matches, Oct. 8-10.
